REPORT

TO

His Excellency JOHN POYNTZ, EARL SPENCER, K.G., &c., &c.,
Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,—

As directed by the provisions of the 26 Vic., cap. 11, sec. 49; the 26 & 27 Vic., cap. 90, sec. 16; and the 7 & 8 Vic., cap. 81, sec. 56, I have the honour to transmit to your Excellency, in order that the same may be laid before Parliament, General Abstracts relating to the Births, Deaths, and Marriages registered in Ireland during the year 1864, being my first Report under the Acts for the Registration of Births, Deaths, and Roman Catholic Marriages, and my fifteenth Report under the 7 & 8 Vic., cap. 81, for the Registration of Protestant Marriages of every denomination.

A General Abstract of the number of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, registered in the year 1864, was presented to Parliament in the Session of 1865, in accordance with the Acts referred to. The Report now submitted contains detailed Tables of the ages and condition of persons married, of Births, distinguishing legitimate from illegitimate; and of Deaths, and their causes.

The Acts for the Registration of Births and Deaths, and Roman Catholic Marriages, came into operation on the 1st of January, 1864, but that for the Registration of Protestant Marriages has been in force since the 1st of April, 1845.

In order to give publicity to the requirements of the 26 Vic., cap. 11, and 26 & 27 Vic., cap. 90, it was provided that "a Notice," setting forth the acts required to be done for the purpose of registering Births, Deaths, and Marriages, should be prepared by the Registrar-General, and furnished by him to all Boards of Guardians, for publication throughout the several Poor Law Unions. This notice was prepared and furnished as directed by the Statutes. With a view to increase the publicity to be given to this Notice, I had, with the approval of the Inspector-General of Constabulary, and the Commissioners of Metropolitan Police, copies of it displayed for a considerable period at all the police stations throughout Ireland. I also had the Notice* printed in the form of a pamphlet, and copies sent by Post to every magistrate, to the clergy of all denominations, to medical practitioners, to editors of papers, and to many other persons of influence, who were requested by me to make known to the people in their respective localities, the great importance and advantage of complying with the new enactments, and it is very satisfactory to me to state that my request was very favourably received and generally acted upon.

With the object of having the Births and Deaths of the military carefully registered, the Deputy Adjutant-General was furnished with a sufficient supply of these Notices for use at the several stations of the army serving in Ireland. To secure the Registration of Births and Deaths of the Irish occurring at sea, I communicated with the Lords of the Admiralty on the subject, furnishing copies of a special notice* for distribution to the captains and other persons in command or in charge of British vessels, which notices their Lordships were so good as to cause to be distributed and published in such manner as to them seemed best for carrying out the law. I was also assisted by the Commissioners of Customs in this matter.

For the purposes of Registration, the country has been divided under the Act, into Superintendent Registrars' Districts—co-extensive with the well defined boundaries of the Poor Law Unions—and into Registrars' Districts —co-extensive with the Dispensary Districts formed under the Medical Charities Act. These districts the Registrar-General, with the approval of the Lord Lieutenant, has the power of altering should it be found necessary.

The Clerks of Poor Law Unions, in virtue of their office, may become the Superintendent Registrars, and the Medical Officers of Dispensary Districts the Registrars of Births, Deaths and Marriages. These officers hold their appointments during the pleasure of the Registrar-General. The number of Superintendent Registrars' Districts in 1864 was 163, and of Registrars' Districts, 770. In some cases two or more medical officers were acting in one Dispensary District. In these Districts, with a few exceptions, a portion of the District was allotted for registration purposes to each of the medical officers. One District (Ballinrobe) was formed into two, the new District being called "Cappaghduff." This division became necessary for the convenience of the inhabitants, who would otherwise have had to travel a considerable distance to register the Births and Deaths occurring in their families, owing to the original District being intersected by a large lake.

Although there were 770 Districts there were only 756 Registrars. In 20 instances one medical officer had charge of two adjoining Districts. 698 of the Medical officers of Dispensaries accepted the office of Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages, and 6 that of Registrar of Births and Deaths only. 26 Registrars of Births, Deaths and Marriages, and 6 Registrars of Marriages were appointed by the Guardians on the refusal of the Medical Officers of the Dispensary Districts to act as Registrars. Of the 32 Registrars appointed by the Guardians, 4 belonged to the Medical profession; 8 were Relieving Officers, 1 was a Poor-rate Collector, 5 were farmers, 4 were in trade; 2 were described as teachers; 6 were returned as clerks, agents, or other occupations; and 2 were stated to have had no occupation.

With a view to the safe custody of the Registers when filled, the 26 Vic., cap. 11, sec. 20, enacted that the Guardians of each Union should provide and uphold, out of the Rates, a Register Office according to a plan to be approved of by the Registrar-General, which Register Office might be made in some part of the existing Poorhouse. To carry out this provision I placed myself in communication with the Poor Law Commissioners, in order that a general plan for an office might be prepared "which, while the principal requirements should, as far as possible, be uniform in all, such modifications might be admitted in detail as the peculiarities of structure of the several workhouses, or other circumstances, might render necessary." Accordingly a plan and specification† were obligingly prepared by the Commissioners, and approved of by me, the general features of the plan requiring that the Register Office should be isolated from the rest of the Workhouse buildings, and that it should consist of two rooms, one to be used by the public, the other as a fireproof Strong Closet, shelved for the reception of the Registers and Indexes. A plan and specification of each office, having the features of this general plan, were then either prepared or sanctioned by the Commissioners.

As soon as each plan had been approved of by me, the Poor Law Commissioners required the Guardians of the Union to provide the office in accordance therewith, so that within a reasonable time Register Offices were provided in every Union in Ireland, except one—Cahersiveen—in which Union the Workhouse is a considerable distance from the town, rendering it more convenient to the public that the office should, for the present, be held in the town in a place provided by the Guardians, the Registers being kept in an iron box, until a suitable site for a Register Office can be procured.

The Registers of Births, Deaths and Marriages in the custody of the District Registrars are preserved in iron boxes furnished to them under the provisions of the Act, so that due precautions have been taken for the safety of these important records whilst in the hands of the Registrars, as also after they come into the custody of the Superintendent Registrars.

Register Books, printed forms, ink, and other requisites, were furnished to the Superintendent Registrars and Registrars some time before the Acts came into operation, to enable these officers to be fully prepared to discharge their duties. Coroners have also been supplied with printed forms of Certificate of Finding of Jury, to enable them to return, in a uniform manner, for insertion in the Registers, the particulars relating to the deaths of persons upon whom inquests are held.

In order to secure uniformity in the registry of the causes of death, I furnished to each Registrar and medical practitioner in Ireland a copy of Dr. Farr's Nosology, at present used in connexion with the Registration of deaths in England and Wales; and, with a view to procure the co-operation of the medical profession throughout the country, I communicated with the Presidents of the King and Queen's College of Physicians, and of the Royal College of Surgeons, also with the Governor of the Apothecaries' Hall of Ireland, soliciting their assistance, and I am happy to state that I received assurances on the part of each of these bodies of their willingness to aid me in attaining accurate and uniform returns of the causes of death.

For public information and guidance, each Registrar has been required by the Act to affix on some conspicuous place, on or near the outer door of his known place of business (generally the Dispensary of the district), a notice setting forth the district for which he acts as Registrar, his name and that of his deputy, and the days and hours during which he will attend at such place on Registration business. Each Superintendent Registrar has been required to place a like notice on or near the outer door of his office. I have also, as directed by the Statute, caused every Superintendent Registrar to publish extensively in his district a list of the names, places of abode, and the known places of business, of every Registrar of Births, Deaths, and Marriages under his superintendence, and also his own name and place of business.

With respect to Roman [Catholic] Marriages, the 26 & 27 Vic., cap. 90 directs that parties about to contract marriage shall produce to the clergyman celebrating the marriage a certificate, to be procured by the husband from the Registrar, and filled up, as far as possible, by that officer with the particulars required to be registered, which certificate the parties married, the witnesses, and the officiating clergymanare required to sign. When so filled up the certificate is to be returned within three days to the Registrar by the husband, under a penalty of ten pounds.

With a view to facilitate the registration of marriages under the Act referred to, I, at the special request of several dignitaries of the Roman Catholic Church, and with the approval of the Law Officers of the Crown —(who at that time were the Right Hon. Thomas O'Hagan, M.P., and James A. Lawson, esq., Q.C.)—instructed the District Registrars to furnish each parish priest, who should apply for them, with blank forms of certificate to be duly filled, signed, and forwarded to the Registrar on the occasion of a marriage, thus saving the husband the trouble and inconvenience of procuring from the Registrar a form of certificate previous to his marriage, as required by the Statute.* I also furnished the Roman Catholic clergymen in Ireland with copies of the Act relating to the Registration of marriages celebrated by them, in order that the requirements of the law might be known to them previous to the Act coming into operation.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

The estimated population in the middle of 1864 was 5,675,307; the number of persons whose marriages were registered, 54,812; of marriages, 27,406; of children born alive, whose births were registered, 136,414; of deaths registered, 93,144. The emigrants from Ireland during the year amounted to 114,169.

MARRIAGES.

The marriages of 27,406 men and 27,406 women were registered during 1864; being in the proportion of 0·48 marriages to every 100 persons, or of 1 marriage to every 207 persons, of the estimated population.

1,032 men and 4,976 women contracted marriage before they had attained their twenty-first year. The proportion of males married under age was 3·77; of females, 18·16 per cent. The proportions in England and Wales in 1864 were—males, 6·62, and females, 20·09 per cent. In Scotland the proportions were 7·46 males and 21·99 per cent. females.

Of widowers, 2,941 were re-married, and of widows, 1,556; the proportion being 10·73 per cent. of widowers, and 5·68 per cent. of widows, to the total marriages. The like proportions in England and Wales were 13·84 widowers, and 9·07 per cent. widows. In Scotland the proportions were, widowers, 11·38 and widows, 5·02 per cent.

According to the provisions of the Registration Acts, every registry of a marriage is required to be signed by the parties married, two witnesses, and the officiating clergyman. A test of the elementary education of the persons contracting marriage is thus afforded by comparing the number who write their names in the registers, with the number who only make a mark. Of 54,812 persons married, 24,352 (10,574 men and 13,778 women) signed the register with marks; this is in the proportion of 44·4 per cent., or 1 in every 2·59 of the males, and 1 in every 1·99 of the females married.

* For copy of Circular issued on this subject, see page 149.

Printed image digitised by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit

The like rates in England and Wales for the same year were 1 in 4·3 males, and 1 in 3·09 females; and in Scotland 1 in 8·72 males and 1 in 4·19 females.

The marriage registers contain a column in which the age of each of the persons married is required to be inserted; but as it is sufficient to state whether the parties are "of full age" or "minors," the precise age at marriage is not generally inserted in the entries. The exact ages of both parties were specified in 12,582 instances. Of these 11,291 were bachelors and 11,913 spinsters. 1,291 were widowers and 669 widows. The largest number of wives were married between 21 and 30—the number being 7,550, or more than one-half of the whole number whose ages are recorded. The largest number of husbands—7,770—is also found to have been married between 21 and 30 years of age.

Three hundred and forty-nine bachelors were married to widows, both of whose ages at the time of marriage are recorded. Of these 191 of the widows and 165 of the bachelors married between 25 and 35 years of age. Of 971 widowers who married spinsters, 475 of the latter were between 25 and 35 years of age; whilst the largest number of the widowers on their re-marriages ranged chiefly between 30 and 45.

Of widowers and widows married, whose ages at the time of marriage are stated, there were 320 couples. Of these the largest number of widows appears to have been between 40 and 50, and of widowers between 45 and 55. Sixteen widowers and four widows were married when they were above 70 years old.

The proportion per cent. of marriages to the estimated population, and of persons married who wrote their names in the registers; also of minors, widowers, and widows, for the several registration divisions are given in the following table:—

The extent and position of each of these divisions are specified at pages 18 to 20.

Of the total number of marriages registered (27,406) 18,819 were celebrated by Roman Catholic clergymen, and entered in the registers by the Registrars in accordance with the 26th and 27th Vic., cap. 90; and 8,587 marriages were of the Protestant persuasions. Of these 4,761 were in churches and chapels of the Established Church, 2,514 in Presbyterian Meeting-houses, 192 in "Registered Buildings," 1,109 in the Registrars' offices, 10 according to the usages of the Society of Friends; and 1 marriage was of members of the Jewish persuasion. Of the entire number of marriages in 1864 there were contracted in the quarter ending the last day of March, 9,602; of June, 6,023; of September, 5,512; of December, 6,269.

The following table gives a statement showing in continuation of the return in my report for 1863, the number of marriages solemnized in Ireland under the Marriages Act of 1844, distinguishing the mode of celebration:—

There is not any return made to me of the places of worship belonging to Roman Catholics in which marriages are celebrated; but under the 7th & 8th Vic., cap. 81, I am enabled to state as regards other religious persuasions, that there were 1,451 Churches and Chapels of the Established Church, 573 registered Presbyterian Meeting-houses, and 188 Registered Buildings belonging to various denominations, in which marriages might lawfully be solemnized, on the 31st December, 1864. During the year 1864

* The 7 & 8 Vic., c. 81, came into operation 1st April, 1845.

there was an increase of ten in the number of such places in the Established Church; of 10 in the Presbyterian Church, and of 15 in other religious communities. The "Registered Buildings" belong to the following denominations:—

Denominations.	Number of Places of Worship.
Wesleyan Methodists,	96
Reformed Presbyterians,	33
Independents,	21

The following Table shows by Divisions and Registrars' Districts the number of places of worship in which marriages (under the 7 & 8 Vic., cap. 81) may be solemnized in each District or Union, distinguishing the religious denominations:—

BIRTHS.

The births registered in Ireland during 1864, amounted to 136,414. Of these, 70,075 were males, and 66,339 females, being in the proportion of 105·6 boys to every 100 girls. In England, in the same year, the like number of males to 100 females was 104·2; and in Scotland 104·4.

The rate per cent. of births to the estimated population was 2·404. In England the rate was 3·564, and in Scotland 3·634.

There were 5,180 illegitimate births, of which 2,631 were those of males, and 2,549 females. The proportion to the total number of births being 3·8 in every 100. The rate in England was 6·4, and in Scotland 9·9 per cent. The highest rates, 6·2 and 5·1, of illegitimate children in every 100 born, occurred in the North Eastern and South Eastern Divisions respectively.

The following table shows the proportion of legitimate and illegitimate births registered in each of the eight Divisions in 1864.

DEATHS.

The deaths registered in 1864 numbered 93,144, of which 46,346 were males, and 46,798 females, being in the proportion of 1·641 per cent. of the estimated population, or in a ratio of 1 registered death to every 61 persons. The proportion in England for the same year was 2·386 per cent., or 1 in 42; and in Scotland 2·386 per cent., or 1 in 42.

The following table shows the per-centage of mortality at different ages:—

Of the total persons whose deaths were registered during the year 26·92 in every 100 were children under 5 years old—of these 28·65 per cent. were boys, and 25·20 per cent. girls. 13·69 per cent. of the men, and 15·32 per cent. of the women, whose deaths were registered had passed their 75th year. 61 males and 73 females in every 10,000 of the persons whose deaths were registered were stated in the returns to be over 95 years of age.

EMIGRATION.

During the year 1864 the number of persons who left the ports of Ireland amounted to 114,169; of these 60,692 were males and 53,477 females. Of the whole number 19,790, or 17·3 per cent., were from Leinster; 48,397, or 42·4 per cent., from Munster; 19,853, or 17·4 per cent., from Ulster; and 18,121, or 15·9 per cent., from Connaught: 8,008 persons, or 7·0 per cent., did not state the county or province to which they belonged.

METEOROLOGY.

The following meteorological observations, taken at the Ordnance Survey office,* Phœnix Park, Dublin, during the year 1864, have been furnished by Captain Wilkinson, R.E., by direction of the Superintendent of the Ordnance Survey.

The mean value of the barometrical readings during the year 1864, was 29·763 inches; for the first quarter it was 29·725 inches, for the second quarter 29·838 inches, for the third 29·804 inches, and for the fourth quarter it was 29·686 inches. The highest reading during the year (30·587 inches) occurred on the 6th November, at 9.30 A.M., the wind at the time blowing from the S.E.; the lowest reading also occurred in November—the instrument on the 13th of that month, at 9.30 P.M., marking only 28·390 inches; the wind blowing from the same point.

The mean temperature of the air for the year was 49·0°; the mean for the first quarter was 40·2°, for the second 53·6°, for the third 57·8°, and for the fourth quarter 44·4°. The maximum registered by the thermometer was 81·4°, which occurred in August; and the minimum reading was 14·8°, registered in January; geraniums, calceolarias, &c., &c., which remained out of doors were killed by the frost on the 4th of this month, up to which date they were fresh and green, and in many cases in bloom; the frost was more intense during this month than it had been since December, 1859. On the afternoon of the 19th March a large yellow butterfly was seen flying about the garden attached to the Ordnance Survey Office, Phœnix Park.

The nights during the latter part of the month of May were unusually cold. On the 21st of August the minimum temperature on grass was 28·7°, nearly 3½ degrees below freezing point; the maximum in the sun's rays was 84·2°, showing a range for the day of 55·5°. During the month of December the temperature on the grass was below 32° on 16 nights, viz., 7th, 8th, 9th, 15th, 16th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 30th, and 31st.

The rainfall during the year measured only 25·487 inches; of which quantity 5·227 fell during the first quarter, 4·083 during the second, 4·137 during the third, and 12·040 during the last quarter. The greatest rainfall in 24 hours was 1·696 inches, which occurred in October. The wind blew from the east during the year much more frequently than usual, viz., 69 days. It blew on 21 days from N., 31 days from N.E., 21 days from S.E., 23 days from S., 93 days from S.W., 79 days from W., and 24 days from N.W., at 9.30 A.M.*

As regards the working of the measures for the Registration of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in Ireland, judging from the number of each of these events recorded in 1864, I consider that many Births, Deaths, and Marriages have not been registered.

In several instances prosecutions have been resorted to with some advantage; but notwithstanding the exertions made to induce a general compliance with the law throughout the country, numerous cases of neglect to register births and deaths have been reported to me by the District Registrars, but frequently at too late a period after their occurrence to allow of the parties being proceeded against at the Petty Sessions.

I regret to add that the registration of marriages under the 26th & 27th Vic., cap. 90, is not at all satisfactory in some Districts, owing to the Clergy who have celebrated the marriages having declined to sign the necessary certificates.

The marriages solemnized under the provisions of the 7th & 8th Vic., cap. 81, which came into operation in 1845, are, I believe, all registered.

The following are the ratios of Births, Deaths, and Marriages to population in different countries compared with the ratio in Ireland in 1864:—

COMPULSORY VACCINATION.

I beg to say that I have supplied the necessary registers and forms to the District Registrars in accordance with the provisions of the Act, 26th and 27th Vic., cap. 52—the operation of which Act has been so very successful under the superintendence of the Poor Law Commissioners.

Following this Report are summaries of the Quarterly Reports issued in 1864, and in the Appendix a letter addressed to me by Dr. Burke, the Superintendent of Medical Statistics, respecting the causes of death—to which I beg to refer.

I am much indebted to the Poor Law Commissioners, and also to the Registrars-General of England and Scotland, for their valuable aid on all occasions when I sought their co-operation and advice regarding the various measures referred to.

I greatly regret that it has not been in my power to submit this Report at an earlier period, but the many difficulties which attend the introduction of new measures, more especially of those so extensive in their provisions and operation as the Registration of the Births, Deaths, and Marriages of a numerous population, will, I hope, in some degree plead my apology for the delay.

I have the honour to be

Your Excellency's

Very faithful servant,

WILLIAM DONNELLY,

Registrar-General.

Quarterly Reports.

First Quarter.

SUMMARY OF THE QUARTERLY REPORTS, 1864.

First Quarter—January, February, March.

The Superintendent Registrars' Districts or Unions have, for statistical purposes, been grouped into eight divisions, which may be briefly described as follows:—

No. I. The North-Eastern Division—is situated altogether in the province of Ulster, and contains 20 Unions or Superintendent Registrars' Districts, extending over an area of 2,328,305 statute acres, or 3,638 square miles; its population by the Census in 1861, amounted to 1,124,041, or 309 persons to the square mile.

This division may be topographically described by a line passing southward from Lough Foyle through the Counties of Londonderry, Tyrone, and Armagh, to Lough Bawn, in the County of Monaghan, and thence eastward to Carlingford Lough, the north and east being on the seaboard.

This division comprises the whole of the Counties of Antrim and Down, and portions of the Counties of Londonderry, Tyrone, Armagh, and Monaghan. It contains Belfast and other manufacturing towns.

The number of births registered in this division during the first quarter of the year 1864 amounted to 5,821, being equal to an annual ratio of 1 in 48, estimated on the population of 1861; and the number of deaths registered during the same period amounted to 6,075, being equal to an annual mortality of 1 in every 46 of the population in 1861, varying from 1 in 31 in the Union of Belfast to 1 in 59 in that of Castleblayney.

No. II. The North-Western Division—is bounded on the east by the division last described, from Lough Foyle to a point a little south of Six Mile Cross, in the County of Tyrone, and may be described by a line drawn thence S.W. through the County of Fermanagh to the south of Enniskillen, embracing that portion of the north-west angle of the County of Cavan belonging to the Enniskillen Union, into the County of Leitrim, crossing Lough Allen, thence into the County of Sligo, to a point situated to the southward of the town of Ballymote, and thence extending north to Ballysadare Bay; the remainder of the division is bounded by the sea. It contains Loughs Erne and Derg, and part of Lough Allen, and large portions of it are mountainous.

This division is situated partly in Ulster and partly in Connaught, and includes the entire of the County of Donegal, portions of the Counties of Cavan, Fermanagh, Londonderry, and Tyrone, in the province of Ulster; and parts of Leitrim and Sligo, in the province of Connaught. It contains 17 Superintendent Registrars' Districts or Unions, covering an area of 2,392,501 statute acres, or 3,738 square miles. In 1861 the population amounted to 574,745, or 154 persons to the square mile.

The number of births registered in this division during the quarter ending the 31st March amounted to 2,502, or an annual ratio of 1 in 57 of the population just mentioned. The number of deaths registered was 2,540, affording a similar ratio. The highest rate of mortality was in the Union of Londonderry—it amounted to 1 in 38 of the population in 1861.

No. III. The Eastern Division—is situated in the provinces of Leinster and Ulster; it extends along the Irish Sea and St. George's Channel, from Warrenspoint, in the County of Down, to the south of Cahore Point, in the County of Wexford, stretching inland about 25 miles, and embracing the Counties of Louth, Dublin, and Wicklow, and portions of the Counties of Carlow, Cavan, Kildare, Meath, and Wexford; together with small portions of the Counties of Armagh and Monaghan. It contains 19 Unions or Superintendent Registrars' Districts, and covers an area of 1,993,016 statute acres, or 3,114 square miles; and in 1861 had a population of 829,569, or 266 persons to the square mile.

The number of births registered in this division during the quarter ending March 31st, was 4,269, representing an annual ratio of 1 in 49, estimated on the population in 1861. The number of deaths registered during the same period amounted to 4,694, or an annual mortality of 1 in 44, varying from 1 in 36 in the North Dublin and South Dublin Unions, to 1 in 66 in the Union of Ratbdrum, and 1 in 67 in that of Kells.

Quarterly Reports. — First Quarter.

No. IV. The North Midland Division—is situated in the provinces of Leinster, Ulster, and Connaught, and extends southward from its junction with the "North-Western" division near Six Mile Cross, in the County of Tyrone, to Tyrrellspass, in the County of Westmeath. Virginia, in the County of Cavan, is situated on its eastern border, and Tulsk, in the County of Roscommon, on its western. It embraces the County of Longford, and portions of the Counties of Cavan, Fermanagh, Leitrim, Meath, Monaghan, Roscommon, and Westmeath; that part of the County of Tyrone included in the Clogher Union, and a very small portion of the County of Galway, situated in the Roscommon Union, and amounting to 4,689 statute acres.

There are 18 Unions or Superintendent Registrars' Districts in this division, extending over an area of 2,019,408 statute acres, or 3,155 square miles; and the population in 1861 was 575,289, or 182 persons to the square mile.

The number of births registered during the quarter amounted to 2,694, being equal to an annual ratio of 1 in 53, calculated on the population of 1861. The number of deaths registered during the same period was 2,455, or an annual mortality of 1 in 59, varying from 1 in 46 in the Union of Athlone to 1 in 70 in that of Oldcastle.

No. V. The South Midland Division—situated in the provinces of Leinster and Munster, extends from the Hill of Down, in the county of Meath, southward to Borris, in the County of Carlow. Its southern boundary may be described by a line drawn thence to New Birmingham, in the County of Tipperary, and from that point south to Fethard, in the same County, thence westward to the northern base of the Galty mountains, and extending thence in a north-westerly direction to Pallasgreen, in the County of Limerick. On the east it is bounded by the "Eastern" division, and on the west by the "Western" and the "South Western" divisions. It embraces the King's and Queen's Counties, and portions of the Counties of Carlow, Kildare, Kilkenny, Limerick, Meath, Tipperary, and Westmeath. It contains 17 Unions or Superintendent Registrars' Districts, occupying an area of 2,361,709 statute acres, or 3,690 square miles; the population, in 1861, was 515,272, or 140 persons to the square mile.

The number of births registered in this division during the quarter ending 31st March amounted to 2,672, or an annual ratio of 1 in 48, estimated on the population in 1861, being similar to the average in the North-Eastern division. The number of deaths registered during the same period was 2,493, affording an annual mortality of 1 in 52, varying from 1 in 39 in the Union of Kilkenny to 1 in 86 in the Union of Borrisokane.

No. VI. The Western Division.—This Division extends southwards from Sligo and Killala Bays to the northern bank of the River Shannon, lying westward of Limerick, the extreme points, north and south, being Benwee Head, in the County of Mayo, and Loop Head, in the County of Clare, a distance in or about 120 miles, which, however, does not represent the extent of seaboard, the western coast being indented by numerous bays and inlets. This division has been extended much more inland than the eastern division, as from its exposure to the Atlantic Ocean, and the prevalence of westerly winds (which blow for nearly three-fourths of the year), the climate must be affected for a considerable distance inland; the Unions situated on the extreme east are Boyle, Castlereagh, Gleunamaddy, Mountbellew, Ballinasloe, and Portumna.

This division embraces nearly the whole of the province of Connaught, and almost the whole of the County of Clare, in the province of Munster. It contains 31 Unions or Superintendent Registrars' Districts, covering an area of 4,088,459 statute acres, or 6,388 square miles; and the population in 1861 was 822,878, or 129 persons to the square mile.

The number of births registered in this division during the quarter amounted to 3,669, being equal to an annual ratio of 1 in 56, estimated on the population in 1861. The number of deaths registered during the same period amounted to 2,937, or 1 in 70, varying from 1 in 48 in the Union of Ballinasloe to 1 in 122 in the Union of Belmullet.

No. VII. The South-Eastern Division.—This division extends from its junction with the "Eastern" division southward of Cahore Point, in the County of Wexford, along the eastern and southern coasts to the east of Cork Harbour, and is bounded on the north by the South Midland division. It embraces the County of Waterford; nearly the whole of the County of Wexford; parts of the counties of Carlow, Kilkenny, and Tipperary; that portion of the County of Limerick (38,550 acres) comprised in the Mitchelstown Union, and a portion of the eastern side of Cork County. It contains 16 Unions or Superintendent Registrars' Districts, extending over an area of 1,826,172 statute acres, or 2,853 square miles; and its population in 1861 amounted to 500,957, or 176 persons to the square mile.

The number of births registered in this division during the quarter ending 31st March amounted to 2,947, affording an annual ratio of 1 in 42, estimated on the number of inhabitants in 1861; and the number of deaths registered during the same period was very similar, viz., 2,926, representing an annual mortality of 1 in 43, ranging from 1 in 35 in the Union of Carrick-on-Suir to 1 in 68 in that of Mitchelstown.

No. VIII. The South-Western Division—extends along the southern and western coasts from Cork Harbour to the River Shannon, and embraces the County of Kerry, nearly the whole of the Counties of Cork and Limerick, and a small portion of the County of Clare, comprised in the Limerick Union.

The south-western division contains 25 Unions or Superintendent Registrars Districts, covering 3,313,071 statute acres, or 5,177 square miles; and the population in 1861 was 855,813, or 165 persons to the square mile.

The number of births registered in this division during the quarter ending 31st March last, amounted to 5,605, being equal to an annual ratio of 1 in 38, estimated on the population in 1861; and the number of deaths registered during the same period was 3,923, affording an annual mortality of 1 in 55, calculated on the population in 1861, varying from 1 in 45 in the Union of Limerick to 1 in 95 in the Union or Superintendent Registrar's District of Cahersiveen.

SUMMARY OF IRELAND.

Population.—The area of Ireland (exclusive of the larger rivers, lakes, and tideways) amounts, according to the Ordnance Survey, to 20,322,641 statute acres, and the population by the Census in 1861 being 5,798,967, the number of persons to the square mile at that period was, therefore, 183; varying considerably in the eight divisions into which the country has been divided in the following tables. The two divisions most densely populated are the "North-Eastern," (309 persons to the square mile) and the "Eastern," (266); the former containing the only large manufacturing district in Ireland, and the latter, the Metropolis; the other divisions range as follows with regard to the number of persons to the square mile—the "North Midland," 182; the "South-Eastern," 176; the "South-Western," 165; the "North-Western," 154; the "South Midland," 140; and the "Western," 129.

Marriages.—The number of marriages registered in Ireland during the three months ending 31st March amounted to 9,602, being equal to an annual ratio of 1 in every 151 of the population in 1861.

First Quarter.

Births.—The total number of births registered in Ireland during the quarter ending the 31st March, amounted to 30,179, being at the annual rate of 1 in 48, estimated on the population in 1861. The division in which the largest number of births, in proportion to the population, was registered was the "South-Western," the ratio being 1 in 38; the other divisions range in the following order—the "South-Eastern," 1 in 42; the "South Midland," and the "North-Eastern," each, 1 in 48; the "Eastern," 1 in 49; the "North Midland," 1 in 53; the "Western," 1 in 56; and the "North-Western," 1 in 57.

Deaths.—The total number of deaths registered in Ireland during that quarter of the year 1864 at present under consideration, amounted to 28,043, which is equal to an annual mortality of 1 in 52, estimated on the number of inhabitants in 1861. The divisions in which the mortality was greatest, in comparison with their population, were the "South-Eastern," and "Eastern," which afforded returns respectively equal to 1 in 43 and 1 in 44 of their inhabitants in 1861; the other divisions follow thus—the "North-Eastern," 1 in 46; the "South Midland," 1 in 52; the "South-Western," 1 in 55; the "North-Western," 1 in 57; the "North Midland," 1 in 59; and the "Western," 1 in 70.

The following statement presents at a glance the order in which the eight divisions range with regard to density of population, and comparative number of births and of deaths to the population in 1861:—

Divisions.	Number of Persons to the Square Mile.	Annual Ratio to Population in 1861. Births.		Deaths.
1. North-Eastern,	309	South-Western,	1 in 38	South-Eastern,	1 in 43
2. Eastern,	266	South-Eastern,	„ 42	Eastern,	„ 44
3. North Midland,	182	South Midland,	„ 48	North-Eastern,	„ 46
4. South-Eastern,	176	North-Eastern,	„ 48	South Midland,	„ 52
5. South-Western,	165	Eastern,	„ 49	South-Western,	„ 55
6. North-Western,	154	North Midland,	„ 53	North-Western,	„ 57
7. South Midland,	140	Western,	„ 56	North Midland,	„ 59
8. Western,	129	North-Western,	„ 57	Western,	„ 70

From this it will be seen that the "North-Eastern" division which ranks first with respect to density of population, comes fourth as regards the comparative number of births to the population, and third as regards the number of deaths; that the "South-Western" division, which ranks first with regard to the number of births in proportion to its population, comes fifth both as to density of population and number of deaths registered during the quarter in comparison with its population; and that the "South-Eastern" division, which ranks first with regard to the number of deaths registered when compared with the number of its inhabitants, comes fourth as to density of population, and second with regard to the comparative number of births to its population.

Second Quarter.—April, May, June.

Second Quarter.

Marriages.—The number of marriages registered in Ireland during the three months ending the 30th of June, amounted to 6,023, being equal to an annual rate of 1 marriage to every 241 of the population. The number returned during the previous quarter amounted to 9,602, which afforded an annual ratio of 1 in every 151 of the population.* Although it is probable that many marriages may not have been registered during either period, still the great disproportion between the numbers in each quarter may be, in some degree, accounted for by the fact that a large proportion of Roman Catholic marriages takes place before Lent.

Births.—That the number of births registered during the second quarter—ending June 30th—should much exceed the number registered during the previous quarter, is a result which was anticipated; for although every effort was made to inform the public that the Registration Act would come into operation on the 1st of January, it could not be expected that all the births which occurred during the first quarter would be registered within it. Many, perhaps from ignorance, failed to register the births; while others, though aware of the existence of the Act, either from negligence or to avoid trouble, did not comply with its provisions. As the time allowed to intervene from the birth of a child previous to notice being given to the Registrar is twenty-one days, it may be assumed that a moiety of the births which occur during the last twenty-one days of the quarter, instead of being then registered, appear on the register of the following quarter.

The number of births registered during the three months ending on the last day of March, amounted to 30,179, which afforded an annual ratio of 1 birth in every 48 of the population;* the number registered during the following three months, ending on June 30th, amounted to 38,715; showing an increase of 8,536 on the previous quarter, and affording an annual ratio of 1 birth in every 37 of the population.*

If the numbers registered during the two quarters be added together, the sum of the births registered during the six months will afford an annual ratio of 1 in every 42 of the population;* but in reference to this calculation it must be borne in mind that very many of the births which occurred during the last twenty-one days of the second quarter, were not registered before the commencement of the third quarter, and are, therefore, not included.

The number of births registered in each of the eight Divisions into which the country has been divided, for statistical purposes, will be subsequently noticed.

Deaths.—The number of deaths registered during the quarter ending March 31st was 28,043, which afforded an annual ratio of 1 in every 52, of the population.* The number registered during the quarter ending June 30th amounted to 24,155, showing a decrease of 3,888, and affording an annual ratio of 1 in every 60 of the population.* The decrease of the mortality during the second quarter may be attributed to the mildness of the season. During the first three months of the year the weather was very severe, and the mortality amongst the aged and infirm was consequently great. This accords with the returns of the Registrars-General England and Scotland.

Taking the number of deaths registered during the two quarters, it is found to yield an annual ratio of 1 death in every 56 of the population.*

The number of deaths registered in the several Divisions will be noticed in the following pages.

METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS.

The months of April, May, and June were of a mild character.

The mean height of the barometer during the quarter, at the Ordnance Survey Office, Phœnix Park, Dublin, was 29·838 inches, the mean maximum was 30·135, and the mean minimum 29·376. The mean temperature of the air was 53·6°, the mean maximum having been 73·9°, and the mean minimum 31·3°. The mean of the dry bulb during the quarter was 54·5°. The average monthly rain-fall was 1·361 inches.

NUMBER OF BIRTHS AND DEATHS REGISTERED IN EACH DIVISION.

No. I. North-Eastern Division.—The number of births registered in this division during the quarter ending the 30th of June amounted to 8,235, being equal to an annual ratio of 1 in every 34 of the population;* the number registered during the previous quarter was 5,821, thus showing an increase of 2,414 for the second quarter.

Second Quarter.

The Union or Superintendent Registrar's District of Belfast had the largest number of births registered during the quarter, and also the greatest relative proportion, the annual ratio afforded being 1 in 25; in the Unions of Larne, Lisburn, and Newtownards, the ratio was 1 in 31; in Banbridge, 1 in 32; in Lurgan, 1 in 33; and in the other unions of this division the ratio was greater than 1 in 40, with the exception of Ballymoney, in which it was 1 in 44; Cookstown and Dungannon, 1 in 43 each; and Newtownlimavady, where the birth-rate was as low as 1 in 52.

The number of deaths registered in this division during the second quarter amounted to 5,369, affording an annual ratio of 1 in 52 of the population,* and being a decrease of 706 when compared with the number registered during the previous quarter.

The populous Union of Belfast, as a matter of course, had the largest number of deaths registered during the quarter; but when compared with the population, the mortality did not equal that which occurred in the Union of Newtownards. In the latter Union the number of deaths registered was equal to an annual ratio of 1 in every 38 of the inhabitants, and in Belfast it was 1 in 39.

No. II. North-Western Division.—The births registered in this division during the quarter ending 30th June amounted to 3,259, affording an annual ratio of 1 in 44 of the population.* The number registered during the previous quarter amounted to 2,502, thus showing an increase of 757.

In proportion to the population, the greatest number of births was registered in the Union of Castlederg, the annual ratio being 1 in 33; in Ballyshannon the ratio was 1 in 37; the number of births registered in the Unions of Manorhamilton and Sligo afforded an annual ratio of 1 in 38 each; in the Unions of Dunfanaghy, Omagh, Strabane, and Stranorlar, the annual ratio afforded in each was 1 in 39; in the Unions or Superintendent Registrars' Districts of Donegal and Glenties, the number of births registered during the quarter afforded an annual ratio of only 1 in 61 each; and in the Union of Millford the number registered only yielded an annual ratio of 1 in 64 of the inhabitants.*

The number of deaths registered during the quarter amounted to 2,339, affording an annual ratio of 1 in 61; the number registered during the previous quarter amounted to 2,540, thus showing a decrease of 201 between the first and second quarters. The Union of Omagh afforded the highest rate of mortality, the number of deaths registered during the quarter affording an annual ratio of 1 in 46; next follows the union of Strabane, the annual ratio being 1 in 47; then Castlederg, 1 in 52; Letterkenny and Londonderry, 1 in 53 each; Inishowen, 1 in 56; Gortin and Stranorlar, 1 in 57; Dunfanaghy, 1 in 59, &c.

No. III. Eastern Division.—The number of births (5,731) registered in this division during the quarter was 1,462 in excess of that registered during the previous quarter, and afforded an annual ratio of 1 in 36 of the population therein.* The Union of Dublin North afforded the highest birth-rate, being equal to 1 in 32 per annum; in the Unions of Bailieborough and Balrothery the number registered was equal to 1 in 33 each; in Gorey, Rathdown, and Shillelagh, 1 in 34 each; and in Dublin South and Rathdrum, 1 in 35 each; the other Unions in this division ranged from this rate to 1 in 46, with the exception of Dunshaughlin, where the number of births registered during the quarter would only give an annual ratio of 1 in every 61 of the population.*

The number of deaths registered during the quarter amounted to 3,812, yielding an annual ratio of 1 in 54 of the inhabitants.* The number registered during the previous quarter was 4,694, thus showing a decrease of 882 between the two quarters. The highest rate of mortality was in the Metropolitan Unions or Superintendent Registrars' Districts of North and South Dublin, both of which yielded an annual ratio of 1 in 45; in Drogheda the ratio was 1 in 50. In the Union or Superintendent Registrar's District of Dunshaughlin, the number of deaths registered during the quarter was only equal to an annual ratio of 1 in 86.

No. IV. North Midland Division.—The number of births registered in this division during the quarter amounted to 3,514, being equal to an annual ratio of 1 in 41 of its inhabitants.* The number registered during the previous quarter was 2,694, evidencing an increase of 820 between the first and second quarters.

The Union or Superintendent Registrar's District of Athlone had the largest number of births registered, in proportion to its population,* the annual ratio afforded being 1 in 31, and the Union of Clones had the least number of births registered, in comparison with its inhabitants,* the number registered yielding only an annual ratio of 1 in 51. The last-named union had also the least proportionate number of births registered in the division during the preceding quarter.

The number of deaths registered during the quarter was 1,940, affording a death-rate of only 1 in every 74 of the population.* The number registered during the previous quarter was 2,455, thus showing a decrease of 515 between the first and second quarters. The number of deaths registered in all the Superintendent Registrars' Districts constituting this division was very low, in comparison with the population, with the exception of Athlone, in which, however, the mortality equalled only 1 in 56.

No. V. South Midland Division.—The number of births registered in this division during the quarter ending 31st of March was 2,672. The number registered during the quarter at present under consideration amounted to 3,138, thus showing an increase of 466 on the quarter, and yielding an annual ratio of 1 in every 41 of the inhabitants.*

The Union or Superintendent Registrar's District of Castlecomer had, comparatively with its population, the largest number of births registered, the annual ratio afforded being 1 in 33. The births registered in the Union of Donaghmore only equalled 1 in 61.

The deaths registered in this division during the quarter ending on the 30th of June amounted to 2,113, affording an annual ratio of 1 in 61 of the population.* The number registered during the previous quarter was 2,493. The decrease, therefore, amounted to 380.

In the Union or Superintendent Registrar's District of Kilkenny the number of deaths registered during the quarter afforded an annual ratio as high as 1 in 43—being the highest rate of mortality in any Union in Ireland with the exception of Carrick-on-Suir, Belfast, and Newtownards. The number of deaths registered in the Superintendent Registrar's District of Borrisokane afforded an annual ratio of only 1 in 101; and in that of Roscrea only 1 in 93.

No. VI. Western Division.—The number of births registered in this division during the quarter amounted to 4,860, affording an annual ratio of 1 in 42 of the population.* The number registered during the previous quarter was 3,669. The increase, therefore, between the births registered in the first and second quarters of the year was 1,191.

The Superintendent Registrars' Districts or Unions comprised in this division vary considerably in the density of their population, and a striking difference is observable in the ratios afforded by the number of births registered in the several unions or Superintendent Registrars' Districts. For instance, in five Unions the birth-rate exceeded 1 in 35; in two Unions it was 1 in 35; in five Unions it was between 1 in 35 and 1 in 40; and in the remainder it varied from that ratio to 1 in 71—which was the annual ratio represented by the births registered in the Union of Glennamaddy.

The number of deaths registered in this division during the quarter amounted to 2,609, yielding an annual ratio of 1 in 79 of the inhabitants,* and being 328 less than the number registered during the previous quarter. The number of deaths registered in the following Unions afforded very low annual ratios, viz. :—Swineford, 1 in 115; Ballyvaghan, 1 in 114; Castlebar, 1 in 109; Glennamaddy, 1 in 108; Tobercurry, 1 in 106; and Ballinrobe, 1 in 101.

Second Quarter.

No. VII. South-Eastern Division.—The number of births registered in the "South-Eastern" Division during the quarter ending the 30th June amounted to 3,437, being an increase of 490 when compared with the number registered during the previous quarter, and yielding an annual ratio of 1 in 36 of its inhabitants.*

In the Superintendent Registrar's District of Kilmacthomas the birth-rate was as high as 1 in 25, and in Enniscorthy, 1 in 31; while in the Union of Callan it was as low as 1 in 47.

The number of deaths registered in this division during the quarter amounted to 2,421, being a decrease of 505 on the previous quarter, but affording an annual ratio of 1 in 52 of the inhabitants.*

The number of deaths registered in the Union or Superintendent Registrar's District of Carrick-on-Suir afforded the annual ratio of 1 in 37, being the highest mortality in any Union in Ireland during the second quarter of 1864. The deaths registered in the Union or Superintendent Registrar's District of Mitchelstown afforded a ratio of only 1 in 72.

No. VIII. South-Western Division.—The number of births registered in this division during the quarter amounted to 6,541, affording an annual ratio of 1 in 33 of the population.* The number registered during the previous quarter was 5,605, or 936 less than the number registered during the second quarter. The number of births registered in the several Superintendent Registrars' Districts of this Division was remarkably uniform when compared with the population in each.

The number of deaths registered in this division during the quarter ending the 30th of June amounted to 3,552, being a decrease of 371 when compared with the number registered during the previous quarter, and yielding an annual ratio of 1 in 60 of its inhabitants in 1861.

In the Union or Superintendent Registrar's District of Newcastle the annual ratio was 1 in 49, and in Cork it was 1 in 51; whereas in the Union of Bantry the number of deaths registered during the quarter afforded only an annual ratio of 1 in 95; in Cahersiveen and Dingle the ratio was 1 in 90 each; and in Clonakilty, 1 in 83.

COMPARISON OF RESULTS BY DIVISIONS.

Births.—Comparing one division with another, as regards the number of births registered during the quarter ending 30th June, in proportion to the number of inhabitants, it is found that the "South-Western" had the highest birth-rate—1 in 33, annually. The other divisions follow thus:—The "North-Eastern," 1 in 34; the "Eastern," 1 in 36; the "South-Eastern," 1 in 36; the "North Midland," 1 in 41; the "South Midland," 1 in 41; the "Western," 1 in 42; and the "North-Western," 1 in 44. The following statement shows the annual birth-rate and the order of the several Divisions for the quarters ending 31st March and 30th June respectively:—

Quarter ending 31st March, 1864.	Quarter ending 30th June, 1864.	Quarter ending 31st March, 1864.	Quarter ending 30th June, 1864.
1 South-Western, 1 in 38	South-Western, 1 in 33	5. Eastern, . . 1 in 49	North Midland, 1 in 41

Second Quarter.

From this it will be observed that the "South-Western" Division had the highest birth-rate during both quarters, and that the "Western" and the "North-Western" came in the same numerical order on both occasions.

Deaths.—Comparing the divisions with regard to the number of deaths registered during the months of April, May, and June, in proportion to the population, the "South-Eastern" appears as having the highest rate of mortality, the annual ratio afforded being 1 in 52. The other divisions come in the following order:—The "North-Eastern," 1 in 52; the "Eastern," 1 in 54; the "South-Western," 1 in 60; the "South Midland," 1 in 61; the "North-Western," 1 in 61; the "North Midland," 1 in 74; and the "Western," 1 in 79. The numerical order of the divisions as regards rate of mortality, during the quarters ending March 31st and June 30th, respectively, was as follows:—

Quarter ending 31st March, 1864.	Quarter ending 30th June, 1864.	Quarter ending 31st March, 1864.	Quarter ending 30th June, 1864.
1. South-Eastern, 1 in 43	South-Eastern, 1 in 52	5. South-Western, 1 in 55	South Midland, 1 in 61
2. Eastern, . . „ 44	North-Eastern, „ 52	6. North-Western, „ 57	North-Western, „ 61
3. North-Eastern, „ 46	Eastern, . . „ 54	7. North Midland, „ 59	North Midland, „ 74
4. South Midland, „ 52	South-Western, „ 60	8. Western, . . „ 70	Western, . . „ 79

PROVINCES.

The following Table shows by Provinces, the number of births and deaths registered during the first and second quarters of the year, and the number registered during the six months, together with the annual ratio to the population:—

Registration Provinces.	Quarter ending 31st March, 1864.				Quarter ending 30th June, 1864.				Half-year ending 30th June, 1864
	Births.		Deaths.		Births.		Deaths.		Births.		Deaths.
	Number.	Ratio, 1 in	Number.	Ratio, 1 in	Number.	Ratio, 1 in	Number.	Ratio, 1 in	Number.	Ratio, 1 in	Number.	Ratio, 1 in
Leinster, .	7,281	49	7,667	47	9,462	38	6,434	56	16,743	43	14,101	51
Munster, .	9,467	40	7,332	52	10,999	35	6,308	61	20,466	37	13,640	56

Connaught, .	4,162	55	3,413	67	5,470	42	2,895	78	9,632	47	6,308	72

From the above Table it will be seen that during the quarter ending 30th June there were registered in the province of Munster 10,999 births, affording an annual ratio of 1 in 35 of the population;* in Ulster 12,784 births were registered, and in Leinster 9,462—in both instances representing an annual ratio of 1 in 38 of the inhabitants;* and in Connaught the number registered was 5,470, being equal to an annual birth-rate of 1 in 42 of its inhabitants.*

Taking the total number of births registered during the six months, the annual ratio to the population afforded by Munster appears to be 1 in 37; by Leinster 1 in 43; by Ulster, 1 in 44; and by Connaught, 1 in 47. When considering the number registered during the six months, it must be borne in mind, as before stated, that many of the births which occurred during the last twenty-one days of the second quarter are not included.

The number of deaths registered in Leinster during the three months which ended on 30th June, amounted to 6,434, being equal to an annual ratio of 1 in 56 of the inhabitants;* the number registered in Ulster was 8,518, or 1 in 57; in Munster, 6,308, or 1 in 61; and in Connaught, 2,895, or 1 in 78.

The number of deaths registered in the province of Leinster, during the six months, equalled an annual ratio of 1 in 51 of the population therein;* in Ulster, 1 in 53; in Munster, 1 in 56; and in Connaught, 1 in 72.

Quarterly Reports.

Third Quarter.

Marriages.—The marriages registered during the three months ending September 30th, 1864, amounted to 5,512, being equal to an annual ratio of 1 marriage to every 263 of the population of Ireland.* In the first quarter the number amounted to 9,602, during the second quarter the number registered was 6,023, making for the nine months a total of 21,137, equal to an annual ratio of 1 in 206.

Births.—The number of births registered during the quarter ending September the 30th was 33,877, representing an annual ratio of 1 in 43 of the population.* The number returned during the first quarter of the year amounted to 30,179, or an annual ratio of 1 in 48 of the population;* and the number returned during the second quarter amounted to 38,715 or an annual birth-rate of 1 in 37.

The total number of births registered in Ireland during the first three quarters of the year amounted to 102,771, yielding an annual ratio of 1 in 42 of the population.*

Deaths.—The number of deaths registered during the quarter ending the 30th of September was 19,191, or an annual ratio of 1 death in every 76 of the population.* The number registered during the first quarter of the year amounted to 28,043, or an annual death-rate of 1 in 52; and the number registered during the quarter ending the 30th of June amounted to 24,155, or 1 in 60 per annum.

The total number of deaths registered during the nine months from the 1st of January to the 30th of September 1864, amounted to 71,389, being equal to an annual ratio of 1 in every 61 of the population.*

METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS.

The following meteorological observations were taken at the Ordnance Survey Office, Phœnix Park, Dublin, during the months of July, August, and September, 1864.

The mean height of the barometer for the quarter was 29·804 inches; the highest reading was 30·371 inches, which occurred on August 15th, at 9·30 A.M., the wind E.S.E.; the minimum reading (29·081 inches) was on September 16th, at 3·30 P.M., with a southerly wind blowing at the time.

The mean temperature during the three months was 57·8°; the maximum height of the mercury (81·4°) was on August 14th, and the minimum (33·0°) was on August 21st. The mean of the dry bulb for the quarter was 58·8°; the mean for the month of July being 61·6°; for August 58·7°; and for September 56·2°. The rainfall during the quarter measured only 4·137 inches, being nearly one-half less than the fall during the corresponding quarter of 1863, which was 7·591 inches. The prevailing winds during the three months were westerly and south-westerly.

During the three months the wind blew on 7 days from the north, 11 days from the north-east, 10 days from the east, 1 day from the south-east, 6 days from the south, 27 days from the south-west, 24 days from the west, and 6 days from the north-west.

July.—During this month the mean height of the barometer was 29·796 inches; the highest reading (30·097 inches) occurred on the 7th at 9·30 P.M., the wind N.W.; the lowest reading (29·304 inches) was on the 2nd at 3.30 P.M., the wind at the time blowing from the west. The mean temperature of the month was 60·6° (80·9° to 40·5°); the 18th was the warmest day, and the 13th was the coldest night. The greatest rainfall in 24 hours (·272 inch) was on the 2nd. Rain fell on 9 days. The greatest amount of ozone (·7) was on the 2nd, and the least amount (·1) was on the 19th and 26th; the mean ozone for the month was ·2.

Third Quarter.

August.—The mean height of the barometer during the month of August was 29·936 inches; the maximum reading (30·371 inches) was on the 15th at 9.30 A.M., the wind E.S.E.; the minimum (29·383) was on the 30th at 9.30 P.M., the wind S.W. The mean height of the thermometer was 57·1°, varying from 81·4° to 33°; the warmest day was on the 14th, and the coldest night was on the 21st. The greatest rainfall in 24 hours (·314 inch) was on the 27th; it rained on 13 days. The greatest amount of ozone (·9) was on the 27th; the least amount (0) was on the 11th; the mean for the month was ·3.

On the 21st, the minimum temperature on the grass was 28·7° (nearly 3½ degrees of frost), and the maximum in the sun's rays was 84·2°, thus showing a range for the day of 55·5°.

September.—The mean height of the barometer during this month was 29·679 inches; the highest reading (30·240 inches) was on the 28th at 9·30 P.M., it being at the time "calm;" the lowest reading (29·081 inches) was on the 16th, at 3·30 P.M., the wind blowing from the south. The mean temperature was 55·8°, varying from 71·2° to 37·4°; the warmest day was on the 6th, and the coldest night was on the 15th; the maximum heat in the sun (90·5°) was on the 26th, and the minimum on the grass (33·3°) was on the 15th. The greatest rainfall in 24 hours (·379 of an inch) was on the 5th; it rained on 22 days. The maximum amount of ozone was ·8; the minimum was ·2, and the mean for the month was ·4.

NUMBER OF MARRIAGES, BIRTHS, AND DEATHS REGISTERED IN EACH OF THE EIGHT DIVISIONS.

No. I. North-Eastern Division.—The number of marriages registered in this division during the quarter ending 30th September amounted to 1,447, being equal to an annual ratio of 1 marriage in every 194 of the population.*

The number of births registered in this division during the quarter ending the 30th September was 7,017; the number registered during the first quarter of the year amounted to 5,821, and during the second quarter to 8,235. The total number registered during the three quarters amounted to 21,073, affording an annual ratio of 1 birth in every 40 of the population* of the division.

The deaths registered during the months of July, August, and September, amounted to 4,114; the number registered during the first quarter of the year was 6,075, and during the second quarter, 5,369; the total number registered during the nine months was 15,558, being equal to an annual ratio of 1 death in every 54 of the population.*

No. II. North-Western Division.—The marriages registered in this division during the third quarter amounted to 384, or an annual ratio of 1 marriage in every 374 of the population.*

The number of births registered in this division during the quarter ending the 30th of September amounted to 2,943; the number registered during the first quarter of the year amounted to 2,502, and during the second quarter to 3,259; the total number registered during the nine months amounted to 8,704, which is equal to an annual ratio of 1 birth to every 50 of the population.*

The deaths registered during the quarter ending the 30th of September numbered 1,738; the number registered during the first three months of the year was 2,540; and during the second quarter, 2,339; the total number registered during the nine months being 6,617, yielding an annual ratio of 1 in 65 of the population* in this division.

No. III. Eastern Division.—The marriages registered in this division during the third quarter amounted to 1,233, or an annual ratio of 1 marriage in every 168 of the population.*

Third Quarter.

The number of births registered during the quarter ending the 30th of September amounted to 5,320; the number registered during the first quarter of the year was 4,269, and during the second quarter, 5,731; the total number registered during the three quarters amounted to 15,320, or an annual ratio of 1 in 41 of the population.*

The number of deaths registered during the third quarter was 3,235; during the first quarter of the year the number registered was 4,694, and during the second quarter it was 3,812. The total number of deaths registered during the nine months was 11,741, affording an annual ratio of 1 death in every 53 of the population.*

No. IV. North Midland Division.—The marriages registered in this division during the third quarter amounted to 378, or an annual ratio of 1 marriage in every 380 of the population.*

The number of births registered during the third quarter of the year amounted to 3,085; the number registered during the first quarter was 2,694, and during the second quarter, 3,514; making together for the nine months 9,293, and yielding an annual ratio of 1 birth in every 46 of the population.*

The number of deaths registered during the quarter amounted to 1,550; the number registered during the first quarter of the year was 2,455, and during the second, 1,940; making a total of 5,945 deaths registered during the nine months, and affording an annual ratio of 1 death in every 73 of the population.*

No. V. South Midland Division.—The marriages registered in this division during the third quarter amounted to 408, or an annual ratio of 1 marriage in every 316 of the population.*

The number of births registered during the quarter ending 30th September was 2,684; the number registered during the first three months of the year amounted to 2,672, and the number registered during the second three months was 3,138; making a total for the nine months of 8,494, the annual ratio being 1 in every 45 of the population.*

The number of deaths registered during the third quarter was 1,753; the number registered during the first quarter of the year amounted to 2,493, and during the second quarter the deaths registered amounted to 2,113. The total number registered during the three quarters amounted to 6,359, yielding an annual ratio of 1 death in every 61 of the population.*

No. VI. Western Division.—The marriages registered in this division during the third quarter amounted to 386, or an annual ratio of 1 marriage in every 533 of the population.*

The number of births registered during the quarter ending September 30th amounted to 4,816; the number registered during the quarter ending 31st of March was 3,669, and during that ending 30th June, 4,860, making the total number registered during the three quarters 13,345, being equal to an annual ratio of 1 birth to every 46 of the population.*

The number of deaths registered during the quarter was 2,061; the number registered during the first quarter of the year was 2,937, and during the second quarter, 2,609; making the total number of deaths registered during the nine months 7,607, or an annual ratio of 1 death in every 81 of the population.*

No. VII. South-Eastern Division.—The marriages registered in this division during the third quarter amounted to 514, or an annual ratio of 1 marriage in every 244 of the population.*

The births registered in this division during the quarter ending September the 30th numbered 2,861; the number registered during the first quarter of the year was 2,947, and during the second quarter, 3,437; during the nine months there were registered 9,245 births, yielding an annual ratio of 1 birth to every 41 of the population.*

The deaths registered during the quarter amounted to 1,859; the number of deaths registered during the first quarter of the year was 2,926, and during the second quarter, 2,421; making the total number of deaths registered during the first three quarters of the year, 7,206, affording an annual ratio of 1 death in every 52 of the population* of this division.

No. VIII. South-Western Division.—The marriages registered in this division during the third quarter amounted to 762, or an annual ratio of 1 marriage in every 281 of the population.*

The number of births registered in this division during the quarter ending 30th September amounted to 5,151; the number registered during the first quarter of the year was 5,605; and during the second quarter, 6,541. The total number of births registered during the nine months amounted to 17,297, yielding an annual ratio of 1 birth to every 37 of the population.*

The number of deaths registered during the quarter was 2,881; the number registered during the first quarter of the year was 3,923; during the second quarter 3,552; and the total number registered during the three quarters amounted to 10,356, which affords an annual ratio of 1 death to every 62 of the population.*

COMPARISON OF RESULTS BY DIVISIONS.

Births.—Comparing one division with another as to the number of births registered in proportion to their population,* the following is the result for the quarter of the year ending 30th September:—The "Eastern" division ranks first, with an annual ratio of 1 in 39; the other divisions come in the following order:—the "North-Eastern," 1 in 40; the "South-Western," 1 in 42; the "Western," 1 in 43; the "South-Eastern," 1 in 44; the "North Midland," 1 in 47; the "South Midland," 1 in 48; and the "North-Western," 1 in 49.

Taking the number of births registered during the nine months ending 30th September, the divisions range thus as to annual birth-rate:—the "South-Western," 1 in 37; the "North-Eastern," 1 in 40; the "Eastern" and the "South-Eastern," 1 in 41 each; the "South Midland," 1 in 45; the "North Midland," and the "Western," 1 in 46 each; and the "North-Western," 1 in 50.

The following statement shows the annual birth-rate and the order of the EIGHT DIVISIONS for the quarters ending 31st March, 30th June, and 30th September, respectively, and for the three quarters taken together:—

Quarter ending 31st March, 1864.		Quarter ending 30th June, 1864.		Quarter ending 30th Sept., 1864.		Nine Months ending 30th Sept., 1864.
1. South-Western,	1 in 38	South-Western,	1 in 33	Eastern, . .	1 in 39	South-Western,	1 in 37
2. South-Eastern,	„ 42	North-Eastern,	„ 34	North-Eastern,	„ 40	North-Eastern,	„ 40
3. South Midland,	„ 48	Eastern, . .	„ 36	South-Western,	„ 42	Eastern, . .	„ 41
4. North-Eastern,	„ 48	South-Eastern,	„ 36	Western, . .	„ 43	South-Eastern, .	„ 41
5. Eastern, . .	„ 49	North Midland,	„ 41	South-Eastern, .	„ 44	South Midland,	„ 45
6. North Midland,	„ 53	South Midland,	„ 41	North Midland,	„ 47	Western, . .	„ 46
7. Western, . .	„ 56	Western, . .	„ 42	South Midland,	„ 48	North Midland,	„ 46
8. North-Western,	„ 57	North-Western,	„ 44	North-Western,	„ 49	North-Western,	„ 50

From the above it will be observed that the "South-Western" Division, which had the largest number of births registered in proportion to its population,* during the first and second quarters of the year, held third place as to the number registered during the third quarter, and that there is but one division which held the same position for the three quarters—namely, the "North-Western," which ranked eighth upon each occasion.

Third Quarter.

Deaths.—Comparing the divisions with regard to the number of deaths registered in each during the quarter ending 30th September 1864, in proportion to the population therein,* the following is the result:—The "Eastern" ranks first, with an annual ratio of 1 in 64; the others follow thus:—the "South-Eastern," 1 in 67; the "North-Eastern," 1 in 68; the "South Midland," 1 in 73; the "South-Western," 1 in 74; the "North-Western," 1 in 83; the "North Midland," 1 in 93; and the "Western," 1 in 100.

During the nine months ending 30th September, 1864, the number of deaths registered in each division afforded the following annual ratios:—the "South-Eastern," 1 in 52; the "Eastern," 1 in 53; the "North-Eastern," 1 in 54; the "South Midland," 1 in 61; the "South-Western," 1 in 62; the "North-Western, 1 in 65; the "North Midland," 1 in 73; and the "Western," 1 in 81.

The numerical order of the Eight Divisions as regards annual rate of mortality is shown by the following statement:—

Quarter ending 31st March, 1864.		Quarter ending 30th June, 1864.		Quarter ending 30th Sept., 1864.		Nine Months ending 30th Sept., 1864.
1. South-Eastern,	1 in 43	South-Eastern,	1 in 52	Eastern,	1 in 64	South-Eastern,	1 in 52
2 Eastern,	„ 44	North-Eastern,	„ 52	South-Eastern,	„ 67	Eastern,	„ 53
3. North-Eastern,	„ 46	Eastern,	„ 54	North-Eastern,	„ 68	North-Eastern,	„ 54
4 South Midland,	„ 52	South-Western,	„ 60	South Midland,	„ 73	South Midland,	„ 61
5. South-Western,	„ 55	South Midland,	„ 61	South-Western,	„ 74	South-Western,	„ 62
6 North-Western,	„ 57	North-Western,	„ 61	North-Western,	„ 83	North-Western,	„ 65
7. North Midland,	„ 59	North Midland,	„ 74	North Midland,	„ 93	North Midland,	„ 73
8 Western,	„ 70	Western,	„ 79	Western,	„ 100	Western,	„ 81

Thus it will be seen that the three divisions touching on the eastern coast had the largest number of deaths registered, in proportion to their population, during each of the three quarters; that the "South Midland" stood fourth, and the "South-Western" fifth in the first and third quarters, and changed places in the second quarter; and that the "North-Western," the "North-Midland," and the "Western," came respectively sixth, seventh, and eighth upon each occasion.

PROVINCES.

The following table shows, by provinces, the number of births and deaths registered during the first, second, and third quarters of the year, together with the annual ratio to the population:—

Registration Provinces.	Quarter ending 31st March, 1864.				Quarter ending 30th June, 1864.				Quarter ending 30th Sept., 1864.
	Births.		Deaths.		Births.		Deaths.		Births.		Deaths.
	Number.	Ratio, 1 in	Number.	Ratio, 1 in	Number.	Ratio, 1 in	Number.	Ratio, 1 in	Number.	Ratio, 1 in	Number.	Ratio, 1 in
Leinster,	7,281	49	7,667	47	9,462	38	6,434	56	8,521	42	5,269	68
Munster,	9,467	40	7,332	52	10,999	35	6,308	61	8,714	44	5,105	75
Ulster,	9,269	52	9,631	50	12,784	38	8,518	57	11,113	43	6,486	74
Connaught,	4,162	55	3,413	67	5,470	42	2,895	78	5 529	41	2,331	97

Births.—It will be seen from the above table that during the first quarter of the year there were registered in the province of Leinster 7,281 births; during the second quarter, 9,462; and during the third quarter, 8,521; making a total for the nine months of 25,264 births, or an annual ratio of 1 in every 42 of the population of the province.* In the province of Munster, 9,467 births were registered during the first quarter, 10,999 during the second, and 8,714 during the third quarter; making together 29,180 births registered during the nine months, which is equal to an annual ratio of 1 in every 39 of its population.* In the province of Ulster there were registered during the first quarter 9,269 births, 12,784 during the second, and 11,113 during the third quarter; making a total for the nine months of 33,166, yielding an annual ratio of 1 in every 44 of the inhabitants.* In the province of CONNAUGHT there were registered during the first quarter 4,162 births, 5,470 during the second, and 5,529 during the third quarter; making a total of 15,161 births registered during the nine months ending 30th September, 1864, a number equal to an annual ratio of 1 in every 45 of its population.*

Third Quarter

Thus it is found that, as regards the number of births registered in proportion to the population, during the nine months, the provinces range as follows:—Munster first, with 1 in 39 per annum; Leinster second, with 1 in 42; Ulster third, with 1 in 44; and Connaught fourth, with 1 in 45.

Deaths.—There were registered in the province of LEINSTER during the first quarter of the year, 7,667 deaths, 6,434 during the second, and 5,269 during the third quarter; making a total for the nine months of 19,370 deaths, equal to an annual ratio of 1 death in every 55 of its population.* In the province of MUNSTER 7,332 deaths were registered during the first quarter, 6,308 during the second, and 5,105 during the third; making a total for the nine months of 18,745, which affords an annual ratio of 1 in every 61 of the inhabitants.* In the province of ULSTER 9,631 deaths were registered during the first three months, 8,518 during the second, and 6,486 during the third; making a total of 24,635 deaths registered during the nine months, which is equal to an annual ratio of one in every 59 of its inhabitants.* In the province of CONNAUGHT there were registered during the first quarter 3,413 deaths, 2,895 during the second, and 2,331 during that ending on 30th September, making a total of 8,639 deaths registered during the nine months, and being equal to an annual ratio of 1 in every 79 of the population.*

The provinces rank as follows, with regard to the number of deaths registered during the nine months in proportion to the population:*—Leinster first, with an annual ratio of 1 in 55; Ulster second, 1 in 59; Munster third, 1 in 61; and Connaught last—the number of deaths registered in that province affording an annual ratio of only 1 in every 79 of its population.*

Fourth Quarter.

Fourth Quarter.—October, November, December.

Marriages.—The marriages registered during the last quarter of 1864 amounted to 6,269, being equal to an annual ratio of 1 marriage to every 231 of the population.*

Births.—The births registered in the quarter ending December 31st, 1864, amounted to 33,643, affording an annual ratio of 1 birth to every 43 of the population.* The number during the first quarter was 30,179, giving a yearly ratio of 1 in 48; the number in the second quarter amounted to 38,715, equal to 1 in 37; and the number registered during the third quarter was 33,877, or 1 in 43 of the population.*

Deaths.—The deaths registered during the quarter ending December 31st were 21,755, being equivalent to an annual ratio of 1 death in every 67 of the population.* The number registered in the first quarter amounted to 28,043, or 1 in 52; in the second quarter to 24,155, or 1 in 60; and during the third quarter the number registered was 19,191, giving an annual ratio of 1 in 76 of the population.*

METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS.

During the last quarter of the year the mean height of the barometer at the Ordnance Survey Office, Phœnix Park, Dublin, was 29·686 inches; the highest reading (30·587 inches) occurred on the 6th November, at 9.30 A.M., wind S.E.; the minimum reading (28·390 inches) was on the 13th of the same month, at 9.30 P.M., the wind at the time blowing from the same point.

Fourth Quarter.

The mean temperature of the air during the last quarter was 44·4°; the maximum registered by the thermometer was 61·1°; and the minimum was 17·2°.

The rainfall during the quarter measured 12·040 inches; of this quantity, 6·167 inches, or more than one-half, fell during the month of October.

There was an unusual prevalence of easterly winds during the quarter, it having blown from that point on 24 days, viz., on 14 days in October, 5 in November, and 5 in December.

October.—The mean height of the barometer during this month was 29·706 inches; the highest reading (30·333 inches) was on the 11th, at 9.30 A.M., the wind blowing from the north; and the lowest reading (28·724 inches) was on the 19th, at 3.30 P.M., wind N.W. The mean temperature of the air for the month was 49·3°, the maximum being 61·1°, and the minimum 33·0°; the 16th was the warmest day, and the 20th the coldest night. The mean of the dry bulb was 49·2°, and of the wet bulb, 47·0°. The maximum heat in sun was 74·2°, and the minimum on grass was 28·6°. The number of days on which rain or snow fell was 17. The rainfall measured 6·167 inches; the greatest amount in 24 hours was 1·696 inches. The maximum ozone was 1·0; the minimum, ·0; and the mean ·5. On 14 days during the month the wind blew from the east at 9.30 A.M.

November.—The mean height of the barometer during the month of November was 29·556 inches; the highest reading (30·587 inches) was on the 6th, at 9·30 A.M., the wind at the time blowing from the south-east; the lowest reading (28·390 inches) was on the 13th, at 9.30 P.M., the wind S.E. The mean temperature in air was 43·5°; the maximum registered during the month was 60·0°, and the minimum, 27·8°; the 17th was the warmest day, and the 23rd was the coldest night. The mean of the dry bulb was 43·6°, and of the wet bulb, 42·0°. The maximum heat in sun was 66·2°, and the minimum on grass was 23·0°. The rain which fell during this month measured 3·311 inches; the greatest rainfall in 24 hours was ·646 of an inch; the number of days on which rain or snow fell was 22. No. IV. North Midland Division.—The number of marriages registered in this division during the quarter ending December 31st was 470, or an annual ratio of 1 marriage to 306 of the population.*

The number of births registered in the first quarter of the year amounted to 2,694; during the second quarter, to 3,514; in the third, to 3,085; and during the fourth quarter, to 2,985; making a total of 12,278 births registered during the year, being equal to a ratio of 1 birth to every 46·9 of the population.* The number of irths registered during the year in the Union of Athlone was equal to 1 in 39·9 of the population;* in Oldcastle, to 1 in 42·2; and in Roscommon, to 1 in 42·7; while the number registered in Clones equalled only 1 in 56·1; Mullingar, 1 in 54·6; Bawnboy, 1 in 53·7; Lisnaskea, 1 in 52·3; and in Clogher, 1 in 51·6.

The number of deaths registered in the first quarter of the year amounted to 2,455; during the second quarter, to 1,940; in the third quarter, to 1,550; and during the fourth quarter, to 1,766; making a total of 7,711 deaths registered during the year, and affording a ratio of 1 in 74·6 of the population.* The highest death-rate (1 in 57·8) in any of the districts in this division was in Athlone; in Mohill the number of deaths registered equalled only 1 in every 93·8 of the population.*

No. V. South Midland Division.—The number of marriages registered in this division during the quarter ending December 31st amounted to 463, being equal to an annual ratio of 1 in 278 of the population.*

The number of births registered in the first quarter of the year was 2,672; during the second quarter, 3,138; in the third quarter, 2,684; and during the fourth quarter, 2,504; making a total of 10,998 births registered during the year, and affording a ratio of 1 in 46·9 of the population.* In the Unions of Castlecomer and Tipperary the number of births registered in proportion to the population* was the same, viz., 1 in 39·4. In the Union or Superintendent Registrar's District of Borrisokane, the number of births registered during the year affords a ratio of only 1 in 61·9 *of the population.

The number of deaths registered in the first quarter of the year was 2,493; during the second quarter, 2,113; in the third quarter, 1,753; and during the fourth quarter, 1,909; making a total of 8,268 deaths registered during the year, and yielding a ratio of 1 death in every 62·3 of the population.* In the Union of Kilkenny the number of deaths registered during the year afforded a ratio of 1 in 46·1 of the population;* whereas in the Union of Borrisokane the ratio was only 1 in 92·8.

The prevailing epidemics in the "South Midland" division, during the fourth quarter, were fever, scarlatina, and whooping cough.

No. VI. Western Division.—The number of marriages registered in this division during the quarter ending December 31st amounted to 457, affording an annual ratio of 1 in 450 of the population.*

The number of births registered in the first quarter of the year amounted to 5,669, during the second quarter to 4,860, in the third quarter to 4,816, and during the fourth quarter to 5,140; making a total of 18,485 births registered in this division during the year, and affording a ratio of 1 birth to every 44·5 of the population.* In the Unions of Oughterard and Clifden the number of births registered during the year afforded the very remarkable ratio of 1 birth to every 30·6 and 30·9 of the population* respectively. As this birth-rate is so very high, in comparison with the other unions in this division, it has been thought desirable to give a detailed statement of the number of births registered in each Registrar's district of the two unions, which is as follows:—

Oughterard Union.				Clifden Union.

Fourth Quarter.

It will be seen from the foregoing that the birth-rate in the Clifden Union, although high, is very uniform, whereas in the Union of Oughterard the high rate is made up by the very unusual ratio in the Registrar's District of Lettermore, where the birth-rate during the year was 1 in 26·2 of the population.*

The number of deaths registered in the Western Division in the first quarter of the year was 2,937; during the second quarter, 2,609; in the third quarter, 2,061; and during the fourth quarter, 2,345; making a total of 9,952 deaths registered during the year, and affording a ratio of 1 in 82·7 of the population.* With the exception of the Unions of Galway and Mountbellew, in each of the unions forming this division, the death-rate was less than 1 in 60 of the population.* In four Unions—Castlebar, Glennamaddy, Swineford, and Tobercurry—the number of deaths registered during the year did not amount to 1 in every 100 *of the population.

The "Zymotic" diseases most prevalent in this division, during the fourth quarter, were scarlatina, fever, and measles. Whooping cough from which the Island of Inishmore, in the district of Arran, had been free for nine years, appeared during the fourth quarter, and became epidemic.

No. VII. South-Eastern Division.—The number of marriages registered in this division during the quarter ending December 31st, amounted to 565, affording an annual ratio of 1 in every 222 of the population.*

The number of births registered in the first quarter of the year was 2,947; during the second quarter, 3,437; in the third quarter, 2,861; and during the fourth quarter, 2,626; making a total of 11,871 births registered during the year, and yielding a ratio of 1 in 42·2 of the population,* varying from 1 in 34·1 in the Union of Kilmacthomas, to 1 in 48·1 in the Union of Callan.

The number of deaths registered in the first quarter of the year was 2,926; during the second quarter, 2,421; in the third, 1,859; and during the fourth, 2,166; making a total of 9,372 deaths registered during the year, and affording a ratio of 1 in 53·5 of the population.* The number of deaths registered during the year in the Union of Carrick-on-Suir exceeded the number of births, and yielded a ratio of 1 in 41·3; in the Union of Cloumel, the ratio was 1 in 45·1; while in the Unions of Mitchelstown, Fermoy, and Clogheen, the death-rate was only 1 in 74·3, 1 in 63·0, and 1 in 62·3 respectively.

Fever and scarlatina were prevalent during the fourth quarter, throughout the "South-Eastern" division.

No. VIII. South-Western Division.—The number of marriages registered in this division during the quarter ending December 31st amounted to 693, affording an annual ratio of 1 marriage to every 309 of the population.*

During the first quarter of the year the number of births registered was 5,605, in the second quarter, 6,541; during the third quarter, 5,151; and in the fourth quarter, 5,009; making a total of 22,306 births registered during the year, and yielding a ratio of 1 to 38·4 of the population,* ranging from 1 in 31·3 in Millstreet Union, and 1 in 32·4 in Newcastle Union, to 1 in 48·2 in the Union of Croom, and 1 in 48·4 in that of Rathkeale.

The number of deaths registered in the first quarter of the year was 3,923; in the second quarter, 3,552; in the third quarter, 2,881, and in the fourth quarter, 3,298, making a total of 13,654 deaths registered during the year, and being equal to a ratio of 1 in every 62·7 of the population.* In the Union or Superintendent Registrar's District of Cork the number of deaths registered during the year afforded a ratio of 1 in 53·5; in Limerick the ratio afforded was 1 in 56·2. In the following four unions, viz., Bantry, Cahersiveen, Croom, and Listowel, the ratio was respectively 1 in 90·2, 1 in 102·9, 1 in 83·0, and 1 in 83·2.

Fever and scarlatina were prevalent in the "South-Western" division during the fourth quarter.

COMPARISON OF RESULTS BY DIVISIONS.

Quarterly Reports.

Fourth Quarter.

Births.—Comparing one division with another, as to the number of births registered in proportion to their population, during the quarter ending December 31st, 1864, it is found that the North-Eastern division ranks first, the ratio being 1 in 38; the other divisions follow thus:—the Western, 1 in 40; the Eastern, 1 in 41; the South-Western, 1 in 43; the North-Western, 1 in 47; the South-Eastern, 1 in 48; the North Midland, 1 in 48; and the South Midland, 1 in 51.

The numerical order of the EIGHT DIVISIONS as regards the annual Rate represented by the Number of Births registered during each quarter of the year 1864, is shown in the following statement:—

Quarter ending 31st March, 1864.		Quarter ending 30th June, 1864.		Quarter ending 30th Sept., 1864.		Quarter ending 31st Dec., 1864.
1. South-Western,	1 in 38	South-Western,	1 in 33	Eastern, . .	1 in 39	North-Eastern,	1 in 38
2. South-Eastern,	„ 42	North-Eastern,	„ 34	North-Eastern,	„ 40	Western, . .	„ 40
3. South Midland,	„ 48	Eastern, . .	„ 36	South-Western,	„ 42	Eastern, . .	„ 41
4. North-Eastern,	„ 48	South-Eastern,	„ 36	Western, . .	„ 43	South-Western,	„ 43
5. Eastern, . .	„ 49	North Midland,	„ 41	South-Eastern,	„ 44	North-Western,	„ 47
6. North Midland,	„ 53	South Midland,	„ 41	North Midland,	„ 47	South-Eastern, .	„ 48
7. Western, . .	„ 56	Western, . .	„ 42	South Midland,	„ 48	North Midland,	„ 48
8. North-Western,	„ 57	North-Western,	„ 44	North-Western,	„ 49	South Midland,	„ 51

From the foregoing it will be observed that the South-Western division, which ranked first in the first and second quarters of the year, occupied the third place in the third quarter, and the fourth place in the last quarter; while the Western division which occupied the seventh place in the first and second quarters, rose to the fourth place for the third quarter, and to the second place for the last quarter. The North-Western division, which held the last place during the first, second, and third quarters, ranked fifth in the last quarter. Taking the total number of births registered during the year, the divisions rank as follows:—

1. South-Western, ...	1 in 38·4	5. Western, ...	1 in 44·5
2. North-Eastern, ...	„ 39·6	6. South Midland	„ 46·9
3. Eastern, ...	„ 40·8	7. North Midland, ...	„ 46·9
4. South-Eastern, ...	„ 42·2	8. North-Western, ...	„ 49·0

Deaths.—Comparing the divisions, with regard to the number of deaths registered in each during the quarter ending December 31st, the following is the result:—The "Eastern" ranks first, with an annual ratio of 1 in 55; the others follow thus:—the "South-Eastern," 1 in 58; the "North-Eastern," 1 in 60; the "South-Western," 1 in 65; the "South Midland," 1 in 67; the "North-Western," 1 in 79; the "North Midland," 1 in 81; and the "Western," 1 in 88.

The following Statement shows the EIGHT DIVISIONS, arranged according to the annual Rate of Mortality represented by the number of deaths registered in each quarter of the year 1864—

Quarter ending 31st March, 1864.		Quarter ending 30th June, 1864.		Quarter ending 30th Sept., 1864.		Quarter ending 31st Dec., 1864.
1. South-Eastern,	1 in 43	South-Eastern,	1 in 52	Eastern, . .	1 in 64	Eastern, . .	1 in 55
2. Eastern, . .	„ 44	North-Eastern,	„ 52	South-Eastern, .	„ 67	South-Eastern, .	„ 58
3. North-Eastern,	„ 46	Eastern, . .	„ 54	North-Eastern,	„ 68	North-Eastern,	„ 60
4. South Midland,	„ 52	South-Western,	„ 60	South Midland,	„ 73	South-Western,	„ 65
5. South-Western,	„ 55	South Midland,	„ 61	South-Western,	„ 74	South Midland,	„ 67
6. North-Western,	„ 57	North-Western,	„ 61	North-Western,	„ 83	North-Western,	„ 79
7. North Midland,	„ 59	North Midland,	„ 74	North Midland,	„ 93	North Midland,	„ 81
8. Western, . .	„ 70	Western, . .	„ 79	Western, . .	„ 100	Western, . .	„ 88

From the above it may be observed that the mortality in proportion to the population, in each of the four quarters of the year, was highest in the three divisions situated on the eastern coast. Little change took place in the numerical order of the divisions during the four quarters; the South-Western held the fifth place in the first and third quarters, and the South Midland the fourth place in the first and third quarters; in the second and fourth quarters the order was reversed, the South-Western holding the fifth place, the South

Fourth Quarter.

Midland the fourth. In the third and fourth quarters the divisions ranked the same with regard to mortality, in proportion to the population,* except the South-Western and South Midland which changed places. It will be observed that in each of the divisions the rate of mortality was greater during the last quarter than it had been during the third quarter of the year. With regard to the total number of deaths registered in each of the divisions during the year, the numerical order is as follows :—

1. South-Eastern,	1 in 53·5	5. South-Western,	1 in 62·7
2. Eastern,	„ 53·5	6. North-Western,	„ 68·2
3. North-Eastern,	„ 55·5	7. North Midland,	„ 74·6

NOTE.—This table has been constructed for the years 1801 to 1831—By adopting the rates of increase of the male and female population between 1821 and 1831, as shown by the Irish Census Reports of 1831—the first complete Census of Ireland having been taken in 1821.

1832 to 1841—By adopting the rate of increase between the population of 1831 and 1841, according to the Irish Census Report of 1841.

1842 to 1846—By taking the English average birth-rate of 1 in 31, and death-rate of 1 in 45, and deducting the annual emigration from Ireland according to the returns received from the Emigration Commissioners in England.

1847 to 1851—The English birth-rate, as above, was used, deducting the number of deaths and the number of emigrants in each year, as given in the Irish Census Reports of 1851; the difference between the number arrived at by this computation and the actual number by the Census of 1851 was divided over the intervening years in proportion to the number of recorded deaths and the number of emigrants.

1852 to 1861—The English birth and death rates, as above, were used, deducting the number of emigrants according to the returns obtained by the Registrar-General for Ireland, and apportioning the difference as explained for the last period.

1862 to 1864—The English birth and death rates, as above, were employed in the calculations for each year, deducting the number of emigrants according to the returns received by the Registrar-General for Ireland.

* The Registration Counties consist of groups of Superintendent Registrars' Districts or Poor Law Unions. Whenever a District or Union extends into more than one County, it is assigned wholly to that County in which the greater portion of the population is located; hence all the Registration Counties differ more or less from the Counties Proper.

NOTE.—The Registrars' Districts are sub-divisions of the Unions or Superintendent Registrars' Districts, and are identical with the Dispensary Districts of the same names.

The letter W denotes that the Registrar's District contains within its limits the Workhouse belonging to the Union or Superintendent Registrar's District.

Wherever the minus sign (—) is prefixed to the numbers given in the column headed "Excess of Births over Deaths," it denotes that the births in the Registrar's District, instead of exceeding the deaths, were, in fact, less than the deaths, to the extent stated.

IRELAND.—Supplementary Table of the

[In the foregoing Tables all the Diseases, either having a distinct character, or fatal to any considerable number of persons, are classified under 114 heads; some of which, however, include groups of very distinct diseases,—such as are fatal to only a few persons, or diseases which are often confounded with other diseases. The rule has been to refer the distinct diseases to heads under which the cases were so numerous that the additional numbers would not interfere with the calculated proportions. Where it is desired, partial correction,

* The Registration Counties consist of groups of Superintendent Registrars' Districts or Poor Law Unions. Whenever a District or Union extends into more than one County, it is assigned wholly to that County in which the greater portion of the population is located; hence all the Registration Counties differ more or less from the Counties Proper.

Letter to the Registrar-General on the Causes of Death in Ireland, from William M. Burke, F.C.P.I.

Year 1864.

Sir,

I have the honour of submitting to you some brief observations on the assigned causes of the deaths registered in Ireland during the year 1864.

I think it advisable to italicise the word "registered," for there can be no doubt that the number of deaths registered very imperfectly represents the total deaths which occurred during the year.

I. Zymotic Diseases.

The number of deaths resulting from zymotic diseases amounted to 19,064, or 1 in every 4·9 of the total deaths, and showing a mortality of 3·4 in every 1,000 of the estimated population.* Fever proved fatal in 5,152 instances, being in the proportion of 1 in every 18·1 of the total deaths. Typhus, typhoid fever or typhia, relapsing fever or typhinia, and infantile remittent fever, are all tabulated under the head of fever. The forms of fever most prevalent during the year were typhus and typhoid, the former proving most fatal. The relapsing fever or typhinia, which was so general during the famine years, has not been frequently observed of late. Of the persons whose deaths were ascribed to fever, 2,676 were males, and 2,476 females.

Scarlatina, a disease which chiefly attacks young people, and frequently proves rapidly fatal, caused 2,605 deaths, being in the proportion of 1 in every 35·8 of all the deaths registered. Epidemics of scarlatina were reported from various districts. Amongst those which suffered most were the Unions of Galway, Oughterard, and Ballinrobe, in the western division; and Tralee and Kenmare in the south-western division.

Diarrhœa killed 1,962 persons, or 1 in every 47·5 of the total deaths. Croup was the cause of 1,936 deaths—1,019 males and 917 females; this disease appears to be more fatal in Ireland than in England or Scotland, since 1 in every 48·1 of the total deaths resulted from croup; whereas, according to the Reports of the Registrars-General of England and Scotland for the year 1864, the proportional number of deaths from croup were, in England, 1 in every 73, and in Scotland 1 in every 53. The deaths from whooping cough numbered 1,735—777 males and 958 females. Diphtheria caused 661 deaths; it was very prevalent in the north-eastern division.

Small-pox proved fatal in 854 instances. Of the deaths from small-pox 318 occurred in the north-eastern division (of which number 105 occurred in the Union of Belfast); 110 in the north-western; the remainder being distributed throughout the other divisions.

Hydrophobia caused 7 deaths—6 males and 1 female.

Three men and 1 woman died from glanders.

* The population of Ireland in the middle of the year 1864 is estimated as 5,675,307.

II. Constitutional Diseases.

The number of deaths referred to constitutional diseases amounted to 17,751, or 1 in every 5·2 of the total deaths registered, and 3·1 to every 1,000 of the estimated population.

The number of persons who fell victims to phthisis, or pulmonary consumption, amounted to 9,735—4,740 males and 4,995 females. In both sexes the majority of deaths from phthisis occurred between the ages of 15 and 35 years.

2,272 deaths—997 males and 1,275 females—were tabulated under the head of dropsy, which is generally a secondary affection, depending on some visceral disease, and not a disease per se.

Of the deaths from cancer (1,498), 664 were of males, and 834 of females; between the ages of 55 and 75 cancer proved most fatal to males, and to females between 45 and 65.

Tabes mesenterica proved fatal to 1,667 persons, the majority of whom were under 5 years of age.

Hydrocephalus, another scrofulous disease, chiefly affecting children, furnished 1,060 deaths.

1,224 deaths were returned simply as from scrofula.

III. Local Diseases.

To this class of diseases 33,445 deaths were referred, being in the proportion of 1 in every 2·8 of the total deaths, and affording a ratio of 5·9 deaths to 1,000 of the estimated population.

From diseases of the nervous system there died 8,852 persons—4,825 males, and 4,027 females; of these nearly one-half the number (3,981) were ascribed to convulsions, the majority of the victims being children under 1 year old.

The deaths from apoplexy of males exceeded those of females by 148. The proportional number of deaths from apoplexy to the total deaths was 1 in every 112·2.

Paralysis proved equally fatal to males and females.

Of the deaths from diseases of the nervous system 1,182 were returned under the head of brain disease unspecified.

Diseases affecting the organs of circulation contributed 2,877 deaths; 39 males, and 29 females died from pericarditis or inflammation of the covering of the heart; aneurism caused 89 deaths—65 males, and 24 females; the remaining deaths from diseases of the organs of circulation were equally distributed between males and females—the deaths of men being only 2 more than those of women.

15,433 deaths—7,564 males, and 7,869 females—were attributed to diseases of the respiratory organs.

One in every 8·5 of the deaths registered was assigned to bronchitis, which disease killed 10,929 persons—5,104 males, and 5,825 females—thus showing the mortality among the latter as greater by 721 than in the former.

Pneumonia, or inflammation of the lungs, proved more fatal to men than to women, the respective numbers being 1,208 and 795.

1,074 deaths were returned as caused by asthma; 375 by pleurisy; 148 by laryngitis; and 904 were referred to lung disease unspecified.

Printed image digitised by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit

The various diseases of the organs of digestion terminated fatally in 4,682 instances—2,534 males, and 2,148 females. Though gastritis, or inflammation of the stomach is not often met with in practice, yet 180 deaths were attributed to that disease. Inflammation of the bowels (enteritis) was the cause of 612 deaths. 270 deaths were referred to peritonitis, or inflammation of the serous covering of the intestines.

The deaths of 259 males and 155 females, were ascribed to ileus, under which heading deaths from obstruction of the bowels, constipation, &c., were included.

1,163 deaths were vaguely returned as caused by stomach diseases unspecified. Hepatitis or inflammation of the liver is stated to have been the cause of 162 deaths; jaundice of 240; and liver disease, unspecified, of 938.

The mortality from diseases of the urinary organs was more than three-fold greater among men than women; the deaths of males numbering 743 against 217 females.

Of the above number, 210 were caused by nephria or Bright's disease; 28 by nephritis or inflammation of the kidneys; 109 by diabetes.

Two males and 185 females died from diseases of the organs of generation.

Diseases of the organs of locomotion caused 205 deaths—117 males and 88 females.

Two hundred and forty-nine deaths were attributed to diseases affecting the integumentary system; of these, 19 were referred to phlegmon, 97 to ulcer, and the remainder to skin diseases unspecified.

IV. Developmental Diseases.

Under the above heading were tabulated 13,668, or 1 in every 6·8 of the total deaths, and representing a rate of mortality of 2·4 to 1,000 of the estimated population.

Two hundred and forty-six children who were prematurely born, died; 14 died from cyanosis, none having survived the fifth year. Spina bifida caused 17 deaths; the deaths of 42 children were returned under the head of other malformations; and 231 children were cut off during the period of dentition.

Twelve deaths were ascribed to paramenia or disordered menstruation.

The deaths from childbirth amounted to 606; and if the deaths from metria, or puerperal fever, be added, the total deaths resulting from child-bearing, will have been 879, so that for every 155 births registered, one mother died.

Eight thousand seven hundred and fifty-eight persons were said to have died of old age—3,603 men, and 5,155 women.

To atrophy and debility 3,742 deaths were attributed.

V. Violent Deaths.

The deaths of 4 persons in every 10,000 of the estimated population resulted from violence. The total number registered under the head of violent deaths was 2,210 or 1 in every 42·1 of all the deaths returned.

One thousand nine hundred and forty-two of the violent deaths were ascribed to accidental causes; 608 from fractures and contusions; 24 from gunshot wounds; 18 from cuts or stabs; 619 persons lost their lives by burns or scalds—285 males and 334 females; 1 in every 150·5 of the total deaths registered, was from the effects of fire.

Accidental poisoning was the cause of 25 deaths.

The deaths from accidental drowning amounted to 440—344 males and 96 females.

71 deaths were caused by suffocation.

A man aged 38, and a woman aged 75, were killed by lightning.

The particular kind of accident was not specified in 137 instances.

Forty-eight deaths, including 13 cases of infanticide, were tabulated under the head of murder and manslaughter, 25 being referred to the former.

The deaths from suicide amounted to 84—64 males and 20 females; the number of persons who died by self-destruction was 15 to 1,000,000 of the estimated population.

The suicidal means resorted to were—gunshot wounds, 4 males; cuts or stabs, 18 males and 4 females; poison, 2 males and 1 female; drowning, 6 males and 5 females; hanging, 23 males and 7 females; and in the instances of 11 males and 3 females, the means adopted to commit suicide were not stated in the returns.

Two men were executed during the year.

One hundred and thirty-six of the violent deaths were not classed.

In 502 instances of sudden death, the cause was not ascertained.

The cause of death was unspecified, or so ill-defined as not to admit of classification in 6,504 instances, being equal to 1 in 14·3, or nearly 7 per cent. of the total deaths.

The non-specification of the cause of death varied in the returns from the eight divisions. In the North Midland Division the cause of death was ill-defined in 1 in 10; in the South-Eastern, 1 in 10·5; North-Western, 1 in 10·8; South-Western, 1 in 12·7; Western, 1 in 13·6; North-Eastern, 1 in 15; South-Midland, 1 in 18·6; while in the Eastern Division in only 1 in 33·7 of the deaths was the cause unspecified or ill-defined.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

W. M. BURKE.

Appendix A.

Circular Letter from the Registrar-General to the Magistracy, the Clergy of all Denominations, the Members of the Public Press, and also to all other Subjects of Her Most Gracious Majesty in Ireland of every Rank and Class :—

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I venture, on public grounds, respectfully to solicit your valuable and friendly aid in carrying out the provisions of the very important measures referred to in the accompanying Notice.

If now honoured by your generous support,—as I have been on so many occasions during the last nineteen years,—I confidently trust that Ireland will fully participate in the numerous advantages resulting from a general system of Registration of the Births, Deaths, and Marriages of her population, which experience has already shown to be of such incalculable value in England and Scotland,—and the great National importance of which, both in a Social and Sanitary point of view, it is scarcely possible to over estimate.

I have the honour to be,
My Lords and Gentlemen,
Your faithful and obliged Servant,

William Donnelly,
Registrar General.

General Register Office, Dublin,
December 7th, 1863.

Notice by the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages: Furnished under the provisions of the Act 26th Vic., cap. 11, for the Registration of Births and Deaths ;—the Act 26th and 27th Vic., cap. 90, to provide for the Registration of Marriages celebrated by the Roman Catholic Clergy;—and the Act 26th and 27th Vic., cap. 52, to make Compulsory the practice of Vaccination in Ireland.

Acts required to be done for the purpose of Registering any Birth or Death, occurring in Ireland, on and after the First day of January, 1864.

REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS AND DEATHS—26th Vic. Cap. 11.

Districts.

Registration Districts.—On and after the First day of January, 1864, each Dispensary District of a Poor Law Union will be a Registrar's District for the Registration of Births and Deaths, until the same shall be sub-divided by the Registrar-General, in case it be found necessary for public convenience to make any sub-division. In the event of any alteration being made in a District, such alteration shall be published by the Registrar-General within the Union in which the District is situated, and elsewhere, as may be deemed expedient. The several Dispensary Districts which comprise a Poor Law Union will form a Superintendent Registrar's District, except in such cases as the Boundaries may be altered by the Registrar-General, with the approval of the Lord Lieutenant, of which due notice will be given.

Registrars.

Registrars of Births and Deaths.—The Medical Officer of each Dispensary District will be the Registrar of Births and Deaths within the said District. In the event of the Medical Officer declining to act as Registrar, the Guardians of the Union in which such District is situated shall appoint a fit person to the Office of Registrar. Notice of all Changes in the Office of Registrar will be given by advertisement in some Newspaper circulating in the County in which the District is situated. The Registrar is required to cause his name, with the addition of Registrar of Births and Deaths, and the Days and Hours at which he will attend his Residence or place of Business, to be fixed in some conspicuous position on or near the Outer-door of his Dwelling-house or known place of business. A list of the Names and Residences, or known place of Business of every Registrar of Births and Deaths under his superintendence shall be printed and published by the Superintendent Registrar. Births and Deaths may be Registered at a Dispensary Station or Vaccination Station, or at the place of Residence of the person or persons giving information to the Registrar of the District.

Registration of Births.

Information to be given respecting Births.—The persons required to give Information as to the Birth of any Child born in Ireland, on and after the First day of January, 1864, are the following:—

1. The Parents or Parent; or,
   In case of the death or inability of the Parents or Parent,
2. The Occupier of the House or Tenement in which, to his or her knowledge, such Child was born; or,
3. The Nurse; or,
4. Any person present at the Birth of such Child.

The particulars required to be stated to the Registrar are—

WILLIAM DONNELLY,
Registrar-General.

General Register Office, Dublin,
30th November, 1863.

APPENDIX B.

NOTICE to all CAPTAINS and COMMANDING OFFICERS of British Vessels, regarding REGISTRY of BIRTHS and DEATHS at SEA.

The Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in Ireland, hereby begs to direct the attention of all Captains or Commanding Officers of British Vessels to the following Provisions of the Act of the 26th Vic., cap. 11, intitled "An Act for the Registration of Births and Deaths in Ireland," namely—

In the 39th Section it is enacted, that—

"If any child of an Irish parent shall be born at sea after the Thirty-first day of December, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-three, on board of a British vessel, the Captain or Commanding Officer of such vessel shall forthwith make a minute in the log book or otherwise of the several particulars hereby required to be registered touching the Birth of such child, so far as the same may be known, and of the name of the vessel in which the Birth took place, and shall on the arrival of such vessel in any port of the United Kingdom, or by any other earlier opportunity, send a certified copy of such minute through the Post Office to the Registrar-General in Dublin, who shall file the same, and shall cause a true and correct copy thereof, verified by his own signature, to be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose in the General Register Office, to be called the 'Marine Register Book of Births;' and the Registrar-General shall keep such book with the other Registers according to the provisions of this Act."

Printed image digitised by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit

In the 40th Section of the same Act it is enacted, that—

"If any of Her Majesty's Irish subjects shall die at sea on board of a British vessel after the said Thirty-first day of December, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-three, the Captain or Commanding Officer of the vessel on board of which such Death shall have happened shall forthwith make a minute in the log book or otherwise of the several particulars herein required to be inserted in the Register touching such Death, so far as the same may be known, and of the name of the vessel wherein such Death took place, and shall, on the arrival of such vessel in any port of the United Kingdom, or by any other earlier opportunity, send a certified copy of such minute through the Post Office to the Registrar-General in Dublin, who shall file the same, and shall cause a true and correct copy thereof to be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose in the General Register Office, to be called the 'Marine Register Book of Deaths;' and the Registrar-General shall keep such book with the other Registers according to the provisions of this Act."

The following are the Schedules containing the particulars required to be inserted in the Register, so far as the same may be known:

Appendix C.

General Specification for a "Register Office," &c., to be "made in some part of the existing Poorhouse."

Register Office.—One of the Probationary Wards is to be appropriated entirely to the purposes of a Register Office; and of one portion of the room a Strong Closet is to be built off and strengthened with additional walling, as shown in the accompanying plan.

The fittings in the Probationary Ward are to be all removed, and replaced by fittings suitable to the purposes of the office.

A new boarded floor is to be laid down, the walls to be cleaned of the white-wash, and plastered, a deal skirting to be fixed round the room, the ceiling to be lathed and plastered.

A plain stone chimney-piece and hearthstone, and a plain strong half-register fire-grate are to be provided for the fire-place.

The window to have inch-ledged shutters and fastenings, and a deal window-board.

Strong Closet.—The Strong Closet is to have a flagged floor, and to be arched over, one window with iron frame and iron casement (to open), stone sill, jamb and head inch round iron bars outside, very securely fixed in head and sill of opening, the casement to have secure fastening. The inside is to be fitted up with three rows of iron shelving fixed securely on strong iron bearers.

The doorway to the Strong Closet is to have a strong iron door and frame, and strong closet door lock and two keys. Three openings, twelve inches by six inches, are to be formed in the wall between the "Register Office" and Strong Closet, and two iron perforated plates in each, one in each face of the wall for ventilation. The walling and arching to be plastered.

General Register Office, Dublin.

General Rule respecting the Qualifications of Superintendent Registrars of Births and Deaths, and also of Marriages, under the Acts 26 Vic., cap. 11; and 26 & 27 Vic., cap. 90.

Whereas by an Act passed in the 26th year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the Registration of Births and Deaths in Ireland," it is enacted "that the Clerk of the Union for the time being shall, if he shall think fit to accept such office, and have such qualifications as the Registrar-General may by any General Rule declare to be necessary, be the Superintendent Registrar thereof, and that in the event of his refusal or disqualification to act in that capacity, the Guardians of the Union shall appoint a person, with such qualifications as the Registrar-General may by any General Rule declare to be necessary, to be the Superintendent Registrar." And whereas by an Act passed in the 26th and 27th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, cap. 90, intituled "An Act to provide for the Registration of Marriages in Ireland," it is enacted that the Superintendent Registrar of Births and Deaths appointed, and acting from time to time, shall, if he think fit to accept the office, be the Superintendent Registrar of Marriages under said Act. Therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Acts, and by virtue of the power and authority vested in me as Registrar-General, I do hereby declare the following General Rule, as necessary to be observed touching the qualifications of all and every person who shall accept, or be appointed to the office of Superintendent Registrar of Births and Deaths, or of Superintendent Registrar of Marriages, under the provisions of the said Acts, that is to say—

General Rule.—1. Every Superintendent Registrar shall reside, or have a known place of business within the district for which he is appointed, and shall not be a member of any Board of Guardians by which he shall be appointed Superintendent Registrar, unless upon a representation to be made in writing, and signed by two-thirds of the members of such Board, it shall be made to appear to my satisfaction—to be signified under my hand—that there is no person resident within the district capable and willing to undertake the said office of Superintendent Registrar; and he shall not be engaged in any profession or occupation which may be considered by the Registrar-General as incompatible with the discharge of his duties.

2. Every Superintendent Registrar shall be above the age of twenty-three years, and shall not be an uncertified bankrupt, or have applied for, or obtained within twelve calendar months before his acceptance of, or appointment to, the office of Superintendent Registrar, the benefit of any Act or Acts of Parliament for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors.

3. Every Superintendent Registrar shall be prepared to comply with the regulations which may from time to time be made and approved for the discharge of his duties, under the provisions of the said Acts.

And I do hereby reserve to myself as Registrar-General, as aforesaid, the power of revoking, altering, or varying this General Rule, or any portion thereof, and of substituting any other in place thereof, as it may hereafter appear to me to be necessary for the interests of the public service.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, this Twenty-first day of November, in the year of our Lord 1863.

General Register Office, Dublin.

GENERAL RULE respecting the QUALIFICATIONS of REGISTRARS of BIRTHS and DEATHS, and also of MARRIAGES, under the Acts 26 Vic., cap. 11; and 26 & 27 Vic., cap. 90.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the 26th year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the Registration of Births and Deaths in Ireland," it is enacted that "the Medical Officer for the time being of each Dispensary District not subdivided, as aforesaid, shall, if he shall think fit to accept such office, and have such qualifications as the Registrar-General may by any General Rule declare to be necessary, be the Registrar of the said district," and that, "in the event of his refusal or disqualification to act in that capacity, the Guardians of the Union in which such Dispensary District is situated shall appoint a person with such qualifications as the Registrar-General may by any General Rule declare to be necessary, to be the Registrar of such district." And whereas by an Act passed in the 26th and 27th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, cap. 90, intituled "An Act to provide for the Registration of Marriages in Ireland," it is enacted that the Registrar of Births and Deaths appointed, and acting from time to time, shall, if he shall think fit to accept the office, be the Registrar of Marriages under said Act. Therefore, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, and by virtue of the authority given to me as Registrar-

General, I hereby declare the following General Rule, as necessary to be observed regarding the qualifications of every person who shall accept or be appointed to the office of Registrar of Births and Deaths, or of Registrar of Marriages, under the said Acts, that is to say—

General Rule.—1. Every Registrar shall reside or have a known place of business within the district for which he is appointed Registrar, and shall not be a member of any Board of Guardians by which he shall be appointed Registrar, unless upon a representation to be made in writing, and signed by two-thirds of the members of such Board, it shall be made to appear to my satisfaction—to be signified under my hand—that there is no person resident within the district capable and willing to undertake the said office of Registrar; and he shall not be engaged in any profession or occupation which may be considered by the Registrar-General as incompatible with the discharge of his duties as Registrar.

2. Every Registrar shall be above the age of twenty-three years, and shall not be an uncertificated bankrupt, or have applied for, or obtained, within twelve calendar months before his acceptance of, or appointment to, the office of Registrar, the benefit of any Act or Acts of Parliament for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors.

3. Every Registrar shall be prepared to comply with the Regulations made and approved for the discharge of his duties, under the provisions of the said Acts.

And I do hereby reserve to myself, as Registrar-General, the power of revoking or altering this General Rule, or any portion thereof, and of substituting any other, as may hereafter appear to me to be necessary for the interests of the public service.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, this Twenty-first day of November, in the year of our Lord 1863.

WILLIAM DONNELLY, Registrar-General.

APPENDIX F.

General Register Office, Dublin,
23rd November, 1863.

GENTLEMEN,

I beg to enclose the copy of a circular to the Clerk of your Board, in which I request him to inform me whether it is his intention to accept the office of Superintendent Registrar of Births and Deaths, and also that of Superintendent Registrar of Marriages, under the option given to him by the Acts for the Registration of Births and Deaths, 26 Vic., cap. 11, and for the Registration of Marriages, 26 & 27 Vic., cap. 90.

I also enclose the copy of a circular addressed by me to the Medical Officer of each Dispensary District within your Union, in which I request these gentlemen to inform me whether it is their intention to accept the office of Registrar of Births and Deaths, and also of Marriages, under the option given to them by the Acts above named.

In case it may become necessary for the Guardians to elect a Superintendent Registrar, or a Registrar of Births and Deaths, or of Marriages for any district, I herewith send copies of the "General Rules" declared by me under the provisions of the said Acts, setting forth the qualifications requisite in persons holding the office of Superintendent Registrar, and that of Registrar of Births and Deaths, and Marriages; and I beg to inform you that no person accepting, or appointed to such offices, will be entitled to hold the same, unless he shall possess the qualifications required by said Rules, or by any future "General Rules" which may be declared by me to be necessary for the interests of the public service.

I venture, on public grounds, to solicit your valuable aid and co-operation in carrying out the important provisions of the Acts for the Registration of Births and Deaths, and Marriages, above referred to, which will come into operation on the 1st January, 1864, and of which I herewith forward copies—the receipt of which I beg you will be so good as to acknowledge.

I have the honour to be, gentlemen, your faithful servant,

WILLIAM DONNELLY, Registrar-General.

APPENDIX G.

REGISTRATION of MARRIAGES celebrated by the ROMAN CATHOLIC CLERGY, 26 and 27 Vic., cap. 90.

General Register Office, Dublin,
31st December, 1863.

SIR,

I request you will furnish each Parish Priest within your District—who may apply to you for the same—with six blank Forms of Certificates of Marriage, which you will carefully take from the Certificate Book forwarded to you, and also with six of the printed Envelopes, addressed to "The Registrar of Births, Deaths, and Marriages."

By this course—which has been strongly recommended to me by many Dignitaries of the Roman Catholic Church, and approved of by the Law Officers of the Crown—the convenience of the Catholic Population, especially those of the poorer classes, will be greatly promoted in regard to the Registration of their Marriages.

A further supply of Certificates will be forwarded on your application—from which blank Forms will be furnished by you, from time to time, to those Parish Priests within your District who may require them. You will request each Rev. Gentleman obtaining the Certificates to give you a receipt for them, (on the accompanying Forms), in order that you may be able to account to me for all the Certificates entrusted to your care; and you will furnish me, at the end of each month, with the Names and Addresses of those Clergymen to whom you supply them. You will observe they are on Water-marked paper, with the words "Certificate of Marriage" printed thereon.

I beg to say that I feel assured you will discharge the duties of your office with zeal, discretion, and courtesy, and thus largely contribute to the success of the very Important Measures, in the carrying out of which you have so readily undertaken to assist by accepting the office of Registrar.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

WILLIAM DONNELLY,
Registrar-General.
